TWO UNIVERSITIES TO TRAIN WORKERS FOR SLUMS

General Booth, Head of Salvation Army, Outlines His Plan.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—General Booth's plan for two great universities of humanity—institutions at which the cadets of the Salvation Army would be trained for their future battles with sin and misery in the slums—was outlined by himself in an address at the Press club yesterday. The Salvation Army leader was guest at a noon-day luncheon given by the club.

"Before I pass away," said General Booth, "I hope to see well on foot a movement for the inauguration of these universities of rumanity, one in America, the other in Europe. I believe the scheme will not be one difficult to acomplish by an army of loyal men and women such as I have about me, and the good that will he done is not to be measured by words."

Puzzled by the Ministers.

General Booth briefly referred to the work of the Salvation Army.

"We have worked with the humbler classes," he said, "but all our work is that of Christianity. Sometimes I confess I am puzzled by the attitude of the ministers and theological students of the churches, and I wonder what they hope to accomplish by their methods. As for myself, I am thoroughly satisfied with my work.

"When I started I gave up the friendship of the peopic of the better class, I gave up hope of wealth, and I abandoned ambition. Now I have found all that I gave up. Had I wished it I could be wealthy. My publications have brought me thousands of dollars, but every cent of it has gone back as it came, ior the betterment of the conditions of humanity, for making people happy. Similarly I have the best of friends in all classes, and so far as ambition is concerned, if I am not the best known man in the world I am prayed for the most."

General Booth made an earnest plea to the newspaper men present for cooperation in the work of the army.

Before Gen. Booth spoke speeches were made by Milton Bucklin, George D. Prentiss and Louis F.Post. About 300 members of the club sat down to the luncheon with General Booth, his daughter, Commander Evangeline Booth, and several of the general's staff officers.

General Has Special Menu.

Despite the luncheon and other similar entertainments for general Booth, it has leaked out that the leader of the Salvation Army, while appreciating the spirit, fails utterly to enjoy the culinary achievements of chefs in preparing for and catering to his appetite. He has a set menu which he follows every day in the year, and into which neither fish, flesh nor fowl ever enters. The bill of fare, which is sent on in advance of the general when he is going to stop at a hotel, is like this:

Breakfast, to be taken in the bedroom about 7:30—Strong Ceylon tea, boiling hot milk, dry toast and butter.

Midday meal, to be taken about 12:30—Vegetable soup, one roasted potato in its skin, or boiled with some other vegetable that may be convenient.

Tea, about 4:30—The same as breakfast with the addition of a few mushrooms, if in season.

Supper, generally about 8, but rarely later than 10 o'clock—Plain milk pudding, rice or tapioca without sugar, and stewed fruit without sugar.

MOTHER'S DEATH TOO MUCH.

Bachelor Son Grieves Over Demise and Hangs Himself.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 8.—Made despondent over the death of his mother, the only relative he had, Fred Gillardon, aged 41, and unmarried, hung himself in the kitchen of his home just before noon yesterday. The body was discovered by a florist who came to the Gillardon home to leave some flowers.

Gillardon and his mother lived alone in this city. The latter died of old age Sunday.

AMERICAN PLAN FINDS FAVOR WITH HAGUE DELEGATES

Arbitration Committee Declares for Enforced Adjustment.

The Hague, Oct. 8.—The entire Anglo-American project providing for obligatory arbitration was approved by last evening's session of the committee on arbitration by 31 votes to 9. The opponents of the measure were Germany, Austria-Hungary, Switzerland, Belgium, Roumania, Greece, Turkey, Bulgaria, and Montenegro. Italy, Japan, and Luxembourg refrained from voting, and one delegate was absent.

The article providing that sentences of the arbitration court shall have only an advisory effect when they concern questions coming under the jurisdiction of the national courts was suppressed, while the article establishing that the sentences of the arbitration court shall become part of the convention, so far as the signatory powers are concerned, was adopted.

President Nelidoff has approved the draft of the final act of the conference, which was submitted to him yesterday by the special committee having the matter in charge, in which President Roosevelt's name is the first mentioned, as promoter of the conference. During the session of the arbitration committee it became known that Senor Machain of Paraguay had voted in place of his father-in-law, Senor Medina of Nicaragua. The absence of Senor Medina developed the fact that most serious charges have been brought against some of the Central American delegates. Letters have been received by all the delegations here accusing Senor Medina and Senor Machado of Guatemala of various offenses. Senor Machado, who has been away for some time, returned to The Hague to face his accusers. Senor Medina has gone to London, where he represents his country as minister. He pronounces the charges made against him to be untrue.

SUIT IS FIRST GUN IN A GIGANTIC 'PHONE WAR

Battle Likely to Affect Many Indiana Telephone Systems.

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—A gigantic battle which will sooner or later affect the control of practically every telephone system in Indiana was opened in the superior court here yesterday when the New Long Distance Telephone company, of Indianapolis, filed a suit against the Central Union Telephone company, of Indianapolis, and the Citizens' Telephone company, of Kokomo, in an effort to restore to itself the enjoyment of its former exclusive contract with the Kokomo company.

The new company is the independent concern of Indiana. The Central Union is a "Bell" company. The questions that will be raised and decided in this suit involving the Kokomo exchange are questions which have arisen in the past in relation to the business of other exchanges, the Central Union, during the last year or two, having succeeded in invading territory which the management of the new company supposed belonged to that company forever.

"This suit is merely the first gun in a fight between the two big companies," said M. L. Clawson, attorney for the independents, when asked yesterday about the suit. "The questions that will be raised in this action apply to several other deals of the future, so the suit has behind it more

SAYS BIG COMPANY WAS LOOTED OF VAST SUM

Brady Accuses Ryan and Associates of Ornate Financiering.

New York, Oct. 9.—Startling testimony uncovering what is charged to be a big plot to loot the treasury of the Metropolitan Securities company of hundreds of thousands of dollars was brought out yesterday at the Interborough-Metropolitan inquiry of the public service commission. District Attorney Jerome was an interested listener.

He saw Anthony N. Brady, one of the wealthiest of New York capitalists, take the witness stand and heard Mr. Brady practically accuse Thomas F. Ryan and the late William C. Whitney, both of New York, and Peter A. B. Widener, Thomas Dolan and the late William L. Elkins, all of Philadelphia, of having looted the treasury of the Metropolitan Securities company in a single transaction of the sum of $111,652 a piece.

No Excuses Offered.

So far as the record of the inquiry stands nothing tangible in explanation or extenuation has been offered to warrant a milder characterization of Mr. Brady's narrative.

Mr. Brady acquired control of the property and franchises of the Wall and Cortland Street Ferries Railway company, a paper corporation which never had laid a rail, but which Mr.

Perfect Conditions Prevail for Notable Kentucky Trotting Meet.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—General Nelson A. Miles arrived here this morning from Louisville and will attend the trotting races today.

With a cloudless sky a warm sun, although the weather is a little sharp and a track that is lightning fast the 35th annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association will be opened here this afternoon. Probably 10,000 people will see the trotting of the Kentucky futurity, the great card of the day. In this are entried Kentucky Todd, 2:08 3-4; General Watts, 2:09 1-4; Blue Hill, trial 2:09 1-2; Bell Bird, 2:11 1-4; Bertini, trial 2:11 1-4; Miss Densmore, trial 2:09; Baron McKinley and Bonnie Way. Record breaking time is expected.

The first day's division of the futurity is for three years olds and worth $14,000. The second day's division is for two year olds and worth $8,000.

UGLY CHARGES LODGED AGAINST MAYOR AT DECATUR

Marshal Ed Green Accuses City Executive of Drunkenness.

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 9.—Enemies of the city administration continue to harass the mayor with impeachment proceedings.

Yesterday Marshal Edward Green filed additional charges against the executive officer, D. D. Coffee, and he will now have to fight cases on October 15.

The charges as filed by Marshal Green are very short, but are right to the point and if they are substantiated the council can not do otherwise than to oust the mayor.

The charges are in four counts: First, accusing the mayor with being intoxicated on Nov. 2, 1906. Second, that the mayor was seen in a saloon in the month of August, 1907, on Sunday and was seen to drink. Third, that the mayor was intoxicated on Aug. 9, 1907, at which time he insulted several women and children. Fourth, that the mayor was intoxicated on the 28th day of August, 1907, and appeared on the main street of the city, at which time he used vile and indecent language in the presence of women; namely, Mrs. Ed Erwin and others.

The charges are the result of personal ill feeling that has existed for some time between the marshal and the mayor.

NOW OUT AFTER BEAR.

President in Excellent Health and Keen for the Sport.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 9.—The president and his hunting party started out early this morning in search of bear. COULDN'T TELL WHY ASSETS WERE MISSING

Had Disappeared Suddenly from Oil Combine's Balance Sheets.

New York, Oct. 9.—Transcripts of ledgers and journals of the old Standard Oil trust and several of its subsidiaries were placed in evidence today at the hearing of the federal suit against the oil combine for the purpose of proving the government's contention in the bill of complaint that the Standard is an illegal monopoly.

Clarence G. Fay, assistant auditor of the Standard of New Jersey, was again on the witness stand today. Frank B. Kellogg, the government's counsel, called attention to the balance sheets of the Standard Oil company of Kansas, for 1899, in which the stocks of the Southern Oil Tank line, Mutual Oil company, the White Golden Lubricating company, C. P. Wagner & Co., H. Garlick & Co. and the Protection Oil company appeared as assets.

Could Not Explain.

Mr. Fay said he could not explain why the balance sheets in the following years did not show what had become of all these assets and why they were written off.

A balance sheet of the Standard Oil company of New York for 1906 showed it carried its pipe lines as an asset which it valued at $84,823. Mr. Fay said he supposed the Central Park line was included in that asset. He did not know why the asset account for pipe lines had not appeared in the company's books after 1906.

RIVER MEN DECLARE THAT ROOSEVELT ORDER WAS UNJUST

Rush to Defense of Pilot Whose License Was Revoked.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 9.—Upon the return home of the Evansville delegation to the Memphis Waterways convention it became known for the first time that President Roosevelt's action in ordering the license of Pilot Nichols revoked is deemed ill advised.

Roosevelt was either suffering from a brain storm or was totally ignorant of river navigation declare all the river men who witnessed the actions of the steamer Fred Hartweg down the Mississippi. It was first publicly announced yesterday that the statements of President Roosevelt stand contradicted by thirty of the oldest rivermen in the country.

Pilot Browinski, of the president's own boat, testified before the inspectors that the Hartweg never crossed the bows of the Mississippi as the president stated, and that there never was a time during the trip down the river when the Hartweg threatened any damage to any boat or any one.

Pilot McCollough, of the steamer Alton, testified that the Fred Hartweg never made a bad move all the way from Cairo to Memphis. The inspectors would not have revoked Nichols' license except for the order of the president, which gave them no alternative.

DEADLY BOMB SENT TO GOVERNOR BUCHTEL

Denver Deeply Stirred by Plot to Kill Colorado Executive.

Denver, Oct. 9.—Dynamite laden bombs were concealed in packages received almost simultaneously through the mails yesterday by Governor Henry A. Buchtel, David H. Moffat, president of the First National bank of Denver, and Charles B. Kountze, president of the Colorado National bank.

The packages were so designed that the infernal machine would explode as soon as they were opened. Death was certain for whoever opened the packages carelessly.

That none of the men to whom the packages were addressed was blown to pieces was due to the fact that the police had received by chance warning of the plot and put the intended victims of the conspiracy on their guard.

Announcement of the desperate attempt made to kill the governor and the two bankers, following closely upon the frustration of an attempt to assassinate Edward Chase on Sunday night, created a sensation in the city rivaled only by sensation of the miners' labor war.

The police, who have information that Lawrence Phipps, the steel millionaire, was also down on the assassination list, are practically dumfounded by the scope and daring of the plot.

BANK HOLDS CONCERN'S PAPER IN EXCESS OF CAPITAL

Mitten Company Receivership at Fowler Starts New Investigation.

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—Following the appointment of a receiver yesterday in the court for the Fowler Glove and Mitten company at Fowler, Ind., the bank department of the auditor of state's office today began an investigation of the bank of Benton county at Fowler which holds paper of the company to the amount of $27,600. The capital stock of the bank is $25,000.

R. B. Oglesbee, clerk of the bank department of the auditor's office, said today that he would call for a report showing the financial condition of the bank.

SUIT FOR RECEIVER.

Unlawful Preferences Indicated in Building Loan Case.

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—Suit for receiver for the U. S. Building and Loan association was filed today in superior court No. 4. The complaint was prepared by Henry M. Dowling, deputy in the attorney general's office, and alleges that the interests of the stockholders demand the appointment of a receiver.

It sets forth also, according to data furnished by the auditor of state who investigated the company, that unlawful preferences were made among non-borrowing stockholders during the time the company was in liquidation. Some of the stockholders, it is set forth, got two 10 per cent dividends while others got only one 10 per cent dividend.

The Pythian Sisters' social circle will be entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vasen, 1805 South Hanna street.

LIVES IMPERILED BY CAR BARN FIRE IN GOTHAM

Hundreds Flee in Panic from Tenements Near Blaze.

New York, Oct. 9.—Hundreds of lives were endangered, thousands of persons were thrown into a panic, 125 electric cars destroyed and property loss to the extent of $400,000 was caused by a fire in the Fourteenth street car barns early today.

The fire had gained great headway before it was discovered and when the firemen arrived the walls separating the big structure from adjoining tenement houses were smoking hot. Instantly the word was given to clear the tenements and the occupants poured into the streets in a panic. From that time on the police were busy attempting to control the frenzied hundreds, most of whom were foreigners.

CHICAGO JURY GIVES DOCTOR FEE OF $100,000

Physician Recovers from Estate of Late Mrs. Harriet McVicker.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—A jury today rendered a verdict against the estate of the late Mrs. Harriet McVicker in favor of Dr. L. C. H. Zeigler for $100,000.

Mrs. McVicker was the widow of James H. McVicker, the well-known theatrical manager of this city and for many years the owner and manager of McVicker's theater. She died several years ago in California and Dr. Zeigler claimed $100,000 from the estate by virtue of a contract which he said he had made with Mrs. McVicker to give her exclusive attention during the remainder of her life.

After her death the physician brought suit to recover the sum and the jury awarded him the full amount of his claim.

Atlanta, Oct. 9.—In his annual address to the convention of the national free delivery carriers association at its session here today President Paul L. Lindsay, of Georgia, strongly advocated a parcels post system in connection with the United States post office department.

APPROVE W. U. CONTRACT.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The directors of the Pennsylvania company and the Pan Handle railroad today approved the new contract with the Western Union telegraph company by which the telegraph company will use the right of way for its poles and wires.

MURDERS HIS WIFE IN CHILDREN'S PRESENCE

Awful Crime of Columbus Man Who Then Tried to End Life.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Before the eyes of his two small children Fred Butte shot his wife to death early today at her home. Then he turned the smoking revolver against himself and pulled the trigger, slightly wounding himself. He then drank an ounce of carbolic acid.

Butte was rushed to the St. Francis hospital. His death is believed to be a matter of short time. The man was a hard drinker and beat his wife and she had separated from him and applied for a divorce.

"Wont you let me live with you any more?" he said when he had forced himself into the room. "No," she replied, and he shot her. He then shot himself and poured the acid into his mouth while the two children screamed in terror.

CORONER'S JURY NOW PROBES DEATH OF KANSAS GIRL

Married Man at Iola Who Told Strange Tale is Under Guard.

Iola, Kan., Oct. 9.—The coroner's jury that is investigating the death of Miss May Sapp, who was found dead in her father's yard, at Moran, Kas., near here, on the night of Sept. 27, was taken to that place today.

Rev. Frank Reed who is quoted as saying he saw a man and woman quarreling in the rear of the Sapp home on the night of the tragedy; Mrs. Frank Messigner, who while passing the house heard some one scream for help and others, will be examined.

Samuel E. Whitelow, the married man who yesterday told the jury that Miss Sapp killed herself because of his refusal to elope with her., is being closely guarded.

FATAL EXPLOSION WAS CAUSED BY SPARK FROM A PIPE

Two Persons Killed, Others Hurt and House Was Demolished.

Bridgeport, Ohio, Oct. 9.—James Jackson, a coal miner, and Essie, his sixteen year old daughter, were killed when a spark from the pipe smoked by Joseph Barbusi set off a keg of powder in his home and demolished the house.

Mrs. Jackson and Barbusi were severely injured and three of the Jackson children were caught in the debris and badly hurt. The keg contained thirty pounds of powder and Barbusi had been warned not to smoke so near it.

DISCUSSED LABOR QUESTION.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 9.—The second day's session of the convention of the Boilermakers' association was devoted to a discussion of labor questions and the influence and demands of organized labor.

MULLIN PITCHING GAME FOR TIGERS

Former Fort Wayne Pitcher Goes Into Box in Second Game for World's Championship.

DETROIT FIRST TO SCORE; IS QUICKLY TIED

First inning—Detroit, 0; Chicago, 0.

Second inning—Detroit, 1; Chicago, 1.

Third inning—Detroit, 0; Chicago, 0.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—With nerves still tense from the strain of yesterday's battle between respective champions of the American and National leagues baseball enthusiasts gathered early to witness today's struggle for the championship of the world. Hours before the gates were due to be opened all streets in the vicinity of the west side grounds were thronged with people anxious to gain admission.

The crowds were so dense that street car traffic was greatly hampered and at times almost completely stopped.

Weather conditions were not ideal for baseball. The bright sunshine of yesterday was lacking, the sky being completely clouded over and the air was damp and cold. There was a strong southwest wind blowing, which added to the discomfort.

Uncertainty regarding the batteries of the teams widened speculation regarding today's results. It was thought most probable that Pfeister would be put in the box for Chicago with Kling behind the bat. Siever and Schmidt, it was said, would begin the fray for Detroit.

Only Added to Excitement.

As the morning progressed it was evident that the heart-breaking struggle of yesterday had only added to the excitement over the game of today. This was made manifest by the crowds that were gathered around the entrance to the ball grounds as early as 8 o'clock in the morning, three and one-half hours before the gates were opened. Where there was one man waiting for a chance to buy a ticket yesterday there was three today and at 10 o'clock fully 5,000 were lined up eager to obtain seats. The crowd was increasing with every street car that arrived within four squares of the ball park and the crowd gave a strong detail of police all that it cared to do in keeping them within bounds.

The weather along late in the morning gave promise of being better for the game than yesterday. Early in the day the sky was overcast and the strong wind from the southwest was cold. Later, however, the sky cleared and the sun came out bright and warm, promising, aside from a temperature somewhat low, ideal conditions for the game.

No Changes Likely.

No changes are likely to be made in the make-up of the two teams, the pitchers alone being left in doubt. It was uncertain whether Detroit would put Mullen or Siever in the box and Chicago decided to send Reulbach in against Mullen if he came and Pfeister against Siever. Reulbach showed great form yesterday in the three innings that he pitched and held Detroit down so closely that it was figured that he would be the man to send in against Mullen. The general sentiment, which is largely local, as a matter of course, today favored Chicago as the winners of the series, on the strength of the showing made in yesterday's game. It was figured that Chicago had shown better batting ability and ran bases in livelier fashion.

Line-up for Today's Game.

The line-up announced for today's game was as follows:

—Chicago—	—Detroit—
Slagle, cf.	Jones, lf.
Sheckard, lf.	Schaefer, 2b.
Chance, 1b.	Crawford, cf.
Steinfeldt, 3b.	Cobb, rf.
Kling, c.	Rossman, 1b.
Evers, 2b.	Coughlin, 3b.
Schulte, rf.	Schmidt, c.
Tinker, ss.	O'Leary, ss.
Reulbach or	Mullin or
Pfeister, p.	Sievers, p.

Umpires—O'Day and Sheridan.

Mullin Pitches for Detroit.

When the game was called Mullin was sent in to pitch for Detroit, with Payne catching. Pfeister was the Chicago pitching selection. First inning:

Detroit—Jones singled to left. Schaefer hit too hot for Chance to hold. Crawford struck out. Schaefer out at second and Cobb at first on a sharp double play, Tinker to Chance. No runs.

Chicago—Slagle walked. He stole second and went to third on Payne's wild throw, which grazed Pitcher Mullin's ear with such force that time was called to investigate the injury. After a couple of minutes Mullin returned to the box. Sheckard flew out to Schaefer. Slagle caught napping off third, Schaefer to Coughlin. Chance beat out an infield hit. Chance stole second. In sliding, Chance spiked Schaefer and there was another delay. Steinfeldt fanned. No runs.

Second Inning.

Detroit—Tinker let Rossman's grounder get past him and it went for a three-base hit. Coughlin fanned. Sheckard dropped Payne's short fly after a hard run and Rossman scored. O'Leary fouled out to Steinfeldt. Payne stole second. Mullin flew out to center. One run.

Chicago—Kling singled to left. Evers beat out a slow hit to short. Schulte singled, too hot for Mullin. Bases full. Tinker walked, forcing Kling across the plate for Chicago's first run. Pfeister fanned. The bases were still full when Slagle came to bat. Slagle fanned. Mullin was cheered for his nervy work in the crisis. Sheckard grounded out, second to first. One run.

Third Inning.

Detroit—Tinker fumbled Jones' grounder and Jones was safe. Schaefer forced Jones at second. Tinker unassisted. Schaefer out stealing second Kling to Tinker. Detroit hotly insisted that the decision was unfair, but it stood. Jennings was ordered to the coaching line. Crawford fouled out to Kling. No runs.

Chicago—Chance walked. Steinfeldt hit by pitcher, Chance takes second. Kling flew to center and Chance was doubled off second, Crawford to Schaefer. Evers singled to right, Steinfeldt who had started to steal reaching third. Evers stole second. Schulte fanned. No runs.

BURGLAR MAKES ESCAPE AS MOTORMAN GETS TO HOUSE

J. W. Snyder, a motorman on the Lakeside and Pontiac street car line, arrived at home night before last just a few minutes too late to save $9.50 of his hard-earned cash and found only a few muddy tracks on his carpet to show that a burglar had beat him to the coin.

He has a late run and did not get to his home at 635 Putnam street until nearly midnight. The front door was not locked, but a chair is usually placed against it so that enough noise will result from opening it to awaken members of the family. Snyder found the chair had been moved and he began to look around and found that his pocketbook and money had been taken.

Muddy tracks on the floor indicated that the burglar had gotten out only a few seconds before he arrived. It is believed he entered through a window and left by the front door.

COMMISSION AT ROCKVILLE.

Will Inspect Site for Proposed Tuberculosis Hospital.

Rockville, Ind., Oct. 9.—The Indiana Tuberculosis Hospital commission arrived in Rockville at 6:30 o'clock last night and was given an informal public reception at Parke Bank. Representative citizens urged on the commission the selection of the Little Raccoon site, three miles east of Rockville, for the state hospital. This morning the commission will go in automobiles to inspect the sites. They will return to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Strouse at dinner. From here they will go to "The Shades of Death," in Montgomery county, which tract of land is offered for sale to the state, and from there to Bunker Hill, Miami county.

CHALLENGE NEGRO JUROR.

Colored Man Ousted From Panel in Magill Murder Case.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 9.—Thomas Miller, a negro, was accepted by State's Attorney Redmond today as a juror to try for their lives Fay Magill and her recently wedded husband, Fred H. Magill, former Clinton, Ill., banker, whose trial began yesterday in the circuit court on the charge of murdering Magill's first wife. The young woman leaned forward and whispered wit hone of her seven counsel. The defense entered a pre-emptory challenge and the negro was excused.

MEETS AT BLOOMINGTON.

Indiana Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution in Session.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 9.—"Our State Work," an address by Mrs. William Guthrie, was one of the features of the program of the session of the Indiana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held in the student building of the Indiana university this morning. Mrs. W. V. Gaar, of Richmond, spoke, taking for her subject the "Sixteenth Continental Congress," and there was a violin solo by Miss Alice Booth, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Ella Tourner Meek.

MANY CITIES AFTER IT.

Half a Dozen Want Next Convention of Street Railway Men.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 9.—At the third day's session of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes of America routine matters occupied the greater part of the day. The fight for the next biennial convention is being hotly contested. Among the cities which are prominently mentioned are Cleveland, Peoria, Louisville, Pittsburg and Toronto with chances at this time favoring Pittsburg.

than a mere contest for the business which the Citizens' company, of Kokomo, can throw to one company or the other. The suit will result in a contest of the right of the new company to make such exclusive contracts as was made with the Kokomo company and all the other important questions which have arisen between the two big telephone companies in the last few months."

Contract Violation Charged.

The complaint filed yesterday charged that the Central Union company and the Citizens' company conspired illegally to bring about a violation of a contract between the Citizens' and the new company, and asks for an order prohibiting the future operation of an arrangement by which the Central Union company has succeeded the new company in its connection with the Citizens' company.

The contract between the independent company and the Kokomo concern is very similar to the contracts the independent company had with other companies of the state, some of which, it is charged, have been violated as this contract is said to have been violated. Provision was made in the agreement, which is made part of the complaint, by which the new company, in consideration of the payment to the Kokomo company of a percentage of the tolls collected, was to have the exclusive right to the long distance business originating with the Kokomo company.

The contract was executed May 30, 1900, the complaint shows, and was to continue as long as the Kokomo company continued to operate under the franchise which it had then. But provision was made that the new company should have the right to renew the contract by meeting whatever terms might be offered by any other company when the contract should expire.

The complaint says that this agreement continued to be effective until in October, 1906, when the Central Union supplanted the new company at Kokomo. At that time, the complaint says, the Central Union abandoned its toll stations at Kokomo and made connections with the Citizens' company.

The plaintiff company says that it spent $5,000 in making improvements and connections incidental to its contract with the Citizens' company, and that this money would not have been spent had it not believed that the Kokomo company acted in good faith and intended to carry out the provisions of the contract.

Business Has Decreased.

It is charged that the loss in business has been in excess of $5,000, though, it is said, that it is not possible to place an exact estimate on the loss. The complaint says that the average business of the new company originating with the Kokomo company was $814.42 a month before the Kokomo company affiliated itself with the Central Union. Since that time its Kokomo business has averaged $223 a month. The complaint explains that the plaintiff has no remedy at law other than an injunction, because it would be impossible for it to sue for each toll which the Kokomo company makes it possible for the Central Union to get.

SAYS BIG COMPANY WAS LOOTED OF A VAST SUM.

Brady regarded as having franchises sufficiently valuable to make it a good investment at a cost to him of about $250,000. Then, as now, Anthony N. Brady was a powerful factor in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system, across the East River bridge, while William C. Whitney was then the moving spirit in the Metropolitan Street Railway system of Manhattan.

According to Mr. Brady's testimony, Mr. Whitney came to him in 1902, suggested that the Metropolitan interests did not relish the idea of Mr. Brady obtaining Manhattan Railway franchises and offered to take the Wall and Cortlandt Street Ferries Railway company off his hands at cost on behalf of the Metropolitan Securities company, and Mr. Brady agreed to the sale rather than cause friction with the Whitney interests.

Gives a Big Rebate.

When the time came for settlement, Mr. Brady testified, he received from the Metropolitan Securities company a check signed by Thomas P. Fowler, then its president, not for the $250,000 or thereabouts which the purchased franchise had cost him, but for $865,607.19. Mr. Brady identified his indorsement upon this check, proving that he had cashed it or deposited it to his account. In conformity with an agreement previously made he then drew his personal checks for these sums:

To the order of Moore & Schley, brokers, ostensibly for brokerage charges, $134,028.92, and to Thomas F. Ryan, William C. Whitney, Thomas Dolan, Peter A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins, each $111,-652.78.

No reason appeared in testimony why this division of more than half a million dollars at the expense of the securities company should have been made to the five capitalists named.

According to Mr. Brady, he got no profit whatever through the transaction, but merely received back the amount of a loan negotiated by him from the Central Trust company for the purpose of purchasing the Wall and Cortland street corporation, together with the added increment of accumulated interest upon that loan, amounting in all to $250,000.

Control Big Interests.

As the famous traction syndicate well known in the surface railway affairs of both New York and Philadelphia, the five men named by Mr. Brady had been closely associated for years in financial affairs. With most of them, and especially with Mr. Ryan, Mr. Brady himself had close corporate affiliations, notably in the Consolidated Gas company, in which he and Mr. Ryan have been generally regarded as controlling factors. Before the death of Mr. Elkins he and Mr. Widener jointly controlled the traction interest of Philadelphia and other cities. Thomas Dolan, who is now so ill at his home in Philadelphia that he could not be interviewed, has been one of the leaders in the United Gas Improvement company and in other great corporations capitalized high in the millions.

What motives may have prompted Mr. Brady to reveal this hitherto hidden chapter in "high finance" remained unrevealed today, but it is well known that too aggressive efforts made of late by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company in connection with the bridge terminals and their efforts to get a foothold on the Manhattan side of the East River have caused jealousies and antagonisms between the two rival traffic systems. Mr. Brady is heavily interested in the Brooklyn corporation.

May Bring Civil Suits.

Mr. Jerome, who left the hearing at the conclusion of Mr. Brady's evidence, refused to comment upon it. Lawyers pointed out that, in any event, as the transaction occurred five years ago last June, the five years' statute of limitations would debar possible grand jury consideration of the matter with a view of criminal prosecution. It is possible, however, that civil suits to recover might be brought by the receivers now in charge of the Metropolitan Street Railway company if it could be shown that funds had been wrongfully diverted from its treasury.

And Jones Woke Up

To find that his troubles were over. At last he had found a place where he could borrow money when he needed it and pay it back as he earned it.

Jones had often heard of The Fort Wayne Loan Co., but had never investigated our ways of doing business before. Now he borrows what money he needs of us.

COULDN'T TELL WHY ASSETS WERE MISSING.

The balance sheets of the National Transit company showed that the National Transit company paid to the Standard company for the Cross-Town Pipe line from 1890 to 1905 inclusive. The payments varied from $1,189,191 in 1891 to $[illegible]8,191 in 1905.

Figures from the balance sheets of the Galena Signal Oil company showed a total asset of $11,183,333, of which the plant investment was $350,863 and the good will $7,554,017, Mr. Fay said.

Charles T. White, assistant secretary of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, followed Mr. Fay on the witnes sstand. Mr. White submitted a list of stockholders of several subsidiary companies of the Standard Oil company. Wesley Tellford was questioned regarding the loan of $2,-000,000 to James McDonald, who appeared on the books of the Anglo-American company. No explanation was elicited from the witness.

FIND MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

Identification Marks Had Been Removed From Body at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 9.—The body of a young man with a bullet wound in the head was found along the lake front today. Every mark of identification had been cut from his clothing and his pockets were empty. The police think it is another case of murder, probably as the result of a hold-up.

DEATH CLAIMS SECOND VICTIM OF THE WRECK

Fireman F. W. Spencer Succumbs to Injuries—Other Deaths.

Felton W. Spencer, the locomotive fireman who was so badly injured in the wreck on the Pennsylvania at Bourbon Monday morning, died at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's hospital as a result of his injuries. His condition had been regarded as hopeless from the first.

Spencer's comrades relate a pathetic incident of the night prior to the fatal accident. The party in the caboose was in good humor starting on the homeward trip, and as they prepared to retire someone suggested a song. Spencer led the melody of "Shall We Gather at the River," and others joined in the old hymn. They lay down to sleep, one of them never to awaken and another only to survive a few hours.

Young Spencer was 28 years of age. He was born in Michigan, came to Fort Wayne six years ago, and for three years worked as a painter for George Misner, then entering the railroad service. He was a member of Ben Hur court No. 15, and is survived by the wife, two stepsons and a stepdaughter. The family home is at Walton avenue and Pontiac street.

RODENBECK.

Oliver Rodenbeck, son of Diederich Rodenbeck, a farmer residing near New Haven, died Tuesday evening from cerebral meningitis at the age of 12 years. The lad had been ill but a few days.

Funeral will be held at New Haven, Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence and 11:00 o'clock from the Emmaus Lutheran church, Rev. Ferdinand Stock officiating.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Loney—Funeral services of Alexander J. Loney will be held Thursday morning from St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Rockhill—Funeral services of Mrs. Harriet Rockhill will be held tomorrow morning from the M. E. church at Arcola; interment at Lindenwood.

Chown.—Funeral of Gordon Chown will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the residence, 439 East Creighton avenue, Rev. Fox officiating. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

MISS TRUAX IN "THE SPIDER'S WEB."

A large audience composed evidently of many admirers of Miss Sarah Truax greeted that actress and company last evening at the Majestic theater in John Hutchins' drama, "The Spider's Web."

Miss Truax has a part that gives her opportunities that she likes, in this role of Claudia Deering, a young singer who has finished in Paris and won such fame as she believes will enable her to make a small fortune for herself and her mother, now that she has returned to her own home. And Miss Truax plays the role of the enthusiastic young girl with ideas and ideals with consummate skill. In moments demanding intensity of acting and dramatic expression Miss Truax again demonstrated her poise and artistic taste and her work in the second act was exceedingly fine.

The play itself is a curious thing, ully balanced and with many passages that are evidently introduced to help fill out and without which the main theme of the play could proceed with more interest. The first act introduces several characters to lighten the more serious part of the play, but they approach the farcical to such an extent that the contrast to the characters that the real story hinges upon is unpleasant. There is also a jar in the third act, if one thinks of anything except that the villian loses and the heroine wins. Otherwise one derives little satisfaction from the medley of the psychological, the melodramatic and the strange physiological feat of a person who had lain absolutely unconscious for six days the result of bursting a blood vessel in the brain, being restored to complete consciousness, getting up and walking and talking naturally within a half hour's time.

Of the major roles Miss Truax and her lover, played by Frank Decum, have the most sane and natural. The villian, one Geoffrey Curtis, well portrayed by Edwin Mordant, is the most contemptible concoction for even a villian that a Fort Wayne audience has seen in a long time.

The play was beautifully staged and the audience was enthusiastic.

TRAINMEN IN SESSION.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 9.—A three days' convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, which Grand Master Andrew P. Kelley, of Chicago says "will be just a big union revival" opened here this afternoon. Grand Master J. J. Hanrahan, of Peoria, Ill., and all the other grand officers are here.

A FEAT.

"When are we going to be married, Willie?"

"I'd marry you to-morrow, darling, but I cannot support you!"

JURY MAKES SEARCHING INQUIRY AT COUNTY INSTITUTIONS

Could Not Formulate Report for Today—General Court News.

The grand jury visited the Allen County Orphans' home this afternoon and after dinner took up the examination of witnesses, which it is believed will be completed by night. Prosecutor Dan B. Ninde and Deputy Elmer Voirol have been busy with the indictments, but could not finish them up during the day and no report could be made.

At the county infirmary and the orphans' home most searching investigations were made and several hours were spent at each place. Inmates were questioned as to conditions and a most exhaustive report will be made. The jail will be visited tomorrow morning. The volume of business disposed of is enormous, as over five hundred witnesses have been examined since the session begun.

Damage Case Is Still On.

The damage suit to recover from the Toledo and Chicago Interurban Railway company for the death of Freddie Schultheiss, begun in the superior court yesterday, continued through the day.

Cases Dismissed.

In the circuit court today the cases of Jacob A. Hetrick against the National Casualty company, the Central Foundry company against the Peerless Manufacturing company and the Peerless Manufacturing company against William Nahrwolt were dismissed.

LAD FRACTURES LEG A FOURTH TIME IN SHORT LIFE

Clarence Beamer Falls at Orphans' Home and is Badly Hurt.

Clarence Beamer, twelve years old and an orphan at the Allen county home, fell while at play with other children this morning and fractured one of his legs. The remarkable feature is that the same leg had been broken three times before near the same point where the break occurred today.

The little fellow had not fully recovered from the effects of the third fracture and was on crutches at the time he fell. The leg was set within a short time afterward and the young patient will be kept in bed until he has fully recovered this time.

The fall that he sustained this morning was not of a character to have caused the ordinary boy any damage but young Beamer is singularly unfortunate and has suffered the most serious results from ordinary, everyday accidents.

CITY BREVITIES.

Mrs. J. N. Thorp is confined to her home with an attack of quincy.

There will be no meeting of the Y. W. H. C. this week.

Mrs. J. Edward Rear, of Runnion avenue, has gone to Ligonier, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Shobe, a relative.

Rev. Thomas Travers, of Portland, Ind., Rev. John Tremmel, of Plymouth, and Rev. Anthony Messman, of Laporte, were in the city today to attend the funeral of the late Martin Schramm, which took place this morning.

C. H. Worden, vice president of the First National bank, accompanied by his wife and daughter, is expected to arrive home today from a two weeks' business and pleasure trip, in the east. While they were in Atlantic City Mr. Worden attended a meeting of the American Bankers' association which was in session at that place. They visited the Jamestown exposition, Washington, New York city and other eastern cities of interest.

"Why not?"

"You would still get home at three o'clock in the morning!"

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS IN BOX CAR AT THE EAST SHOPS

Z. T. Heffner Stricken Down While Working—Dies Soon After.

Some car builders at the east shops of the Pennsylvania company found Zachary Taylor Heffner, one of their comrades, lying in an unconscious condition in a car where he had been at work at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning. A physician was summoned and after first aid had been administered, Mr. Heffner was carried to his home at 2501 Lillie street, where further efforts to revive him were made, but all in vain. He suffered from cerebral hemorrhage and the attack proved fatal at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, about six hours after he had been attacked by the disease.

Mr. Heffner was born in Ross county, Ohio, February 4, 1848, and was fifty-nine years and eight months old. When he was a year old his parents removed to Westminster, Ohio, where Mr. Heffner remained until 1891, when he came to Fort Wayne. Soon after reaching this city he took a position as car builder with the Pennsylvania company. His service in that line of work dates from Decembe. 4, 1891.

Mr. Heffner was married to Mrs. Rebecca Binkley, at Vaughnsville, Ohio, March 22, 1899, and she and his step-son, F. C. Binkley, of Chicago, and his stop-daughter, Mrs. Della E. Malcolm, of Spring Lake, Mich., survive him. Three brothers and five sisters also survive Mr. Heffner. They are Harry, Beaman and Frank Heffner and Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Table, Mrs. Stevick and Mrs. Kimmana, all residing in Ohio. These brothers and sisters have been notified of the death of Mr. Heffner and some of them will arrive in the city tonight to attend the funeral. The time of holding it and the place of interment will not be decided until the relatives from Ohio arrive. It is quite probable that the remains may be taken to Westminster for interment.

Mr. Heffner had been in rather poor health for a few weeks, but was able to work every day and his condition was not considered at all serious. He was a consistent and active member of the Calvary U. B. church, but belonged to no fraternal nor beneficial order.

DETECTIVES NAME OFFICERS.

Big Parade Marks Closing Day of National Convention.

New Castle, Ind., Oct. 9.—Marching through the streets of Newcastle a thousand strong, the National Horse Thief Detective association made an imposing demonstration at this city yesterday.

The detectives marched on foot, on horseback and in carriages and several brass bands took part in the parade. It was the last public function of the association's forty-seventh annual convention, which closed with a business meeting and the election of officers last night.

The following officers were elected: President, Charles F. Spry, of Logansport; vice president, James Carroll, Lewisburg, O.; secretary, Ira G. Meharry, Wingate, Ind.; treasurer, Charles F. Lowe, Covington, Ind.; S. G. Auglin, Warsaw, Ind., grand organizer. H. H. Evans, William Colvert and Charles F. Spry were appointed as the legislative committee to look after satisfactory legislative action. Peru was chosen as the next meeting place.

MANY BAPTISTS THERE.

State Convention in Session at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—More than 200 delegates attended the open meeting of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Indiana Baptist convention which will continue until Friday. It is expected that the number of delegates will be more than 600 and will represent 550 churches and a membership of nearly 60,000. Rev. F. M. Huckleberry, of Seymour, is president.

MEN MAKE OFFERING.

Presentation Made at Episcopal Convention Today.

Richmond, Oct. 9.—The feature of the day in connection with the triennial session of the Episcopal convention was the presentation of the men's offering at Holy Trinity church this morning. The amount raised will not be known until tonight when it will be announced at a men's thank offering service in the city auditorium.

He who is easily satisfied with his work will never achieve greatness.—Gothe.

A SHOCK.

"What frightened you just then?"

"Why, I saw your face in the mirror and I thought it was mine for a moment!"

LEFT POCKETBOOK WITH EIGHT DOLLARS IN HER WAGON

Thief Came Along and Police are Asked to Locate Him.

Mrs. Thomas A. McNearney, who lives three miles west of the city, left her pocketbook in her buggy while she ran to get hold of her horse's head this morning when the animal became frightened on Columbia street and although only a few seconds were consumed a thief got the wallet along with $8 in cash that it contained.

She said a man followed her from in front of the Columbia street mission to the front of C. C. Schlatter's store and sat on the curb while she went inside to make some purchases. She took the purse with her, however, and when she came out she tucked it under the seat of the buggy while she unhitched her horse and she thinks it was taken while her attention was engaged in keeping the horse from running away.

Says He Slapped Her.

Emil Franks gave a cash bond of $25 today for his appearance tomorrow in the city court to answer a charge of assault and battery preferred by a girl employed at the Hartman house on Washington boulevard. She alleges he slapped her.

WOMAN IS NAMED.

Mrs. Clara M. Hess Justice of the Peace in Laporte County.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Clara Hess, ex-president of the Indiana W. R. C. and wife of C. D. Hess, formerly one of the best known managers of opera companies in the United States, has been appointed justice of the peace of New Durham township, this county. Mrs. Hess, it is said, will enjoy the distinction of being the only woman justice of the peace in the state.

CAUGHT THE WEDDING FOUL.

Spring Fry Lands Bride and Groom Elect in Jail.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 9.—Frank Pearson, Mattie Bolton and Flora Williams, of Elwood, were brought to this city by Officer Hurley and turned over to Sheriff Smelser on a charge of stealing chickens. Pearson and Miss Bolton were to be married soon. The trio went buggy riding Sunday and as a joke stopped near a farm house and appropriated some nice fries. They were apprehended with the chickens, which the farmer insisted were stolen, and the guilty parties arrested and landed in jail yesterday afternoon. There has been no announcement of there being a wedding at the jail.

LEAPS 110 FEET TO DEATH.

Unidentified Man Throws Himself From Rail of Street Viaduct.

New York, Oct. 9.—By a leap from the rail of the One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street viaduct to the rocks 110 feet below an unidentified man killed himself. He was seen by several persons who were crossing the viaduct to their homes in Washington Heights during the heavy rain soon after 7 o'clock.

One young woman who was near him saw him climb to the top of the railing at several places before leaping. She cried out to him to stop, and he made an attempt to recover himself, but plunged over the rail. She notified a policeman in St. Nicholas avenue, and with him descended the steps to the lot below, where the body was found.

In the bundle the man had carried was a new suit of clothes from which the identification mark had been removed.

NOT WORTH IT.

"Mary, this letter looks as though it had been steamed open and then sealed up again."

"Well, I didn't open it, mum. Do you think I'd steam open letters that never have anything interesting in them like yours?"

Edward Collins, sentenced for horse-stealing, died a few days ago in the Michigan City prison. He was from Elkhart.

Elias Gortner, a pioneer resident of Goshen, is dead. He was long engaged in manufacturing enterprises and in mercantile trade.

Instead of declaring a dividend this year, the Kendallville fair will devote its $2,000 profit into improvements upon the grounds.

Miss Grace Ruff, of Claypool, 17 years old, has accepted the management of a newspaper at Summertown, Tenn. Miss Ruff is a daughter of the editor of the Claypool Journal.

While playing with some companions Monday, Basil Rogers, 10 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, of Auburn, was struck on the hea dby a stone and his frontal bone was fractured.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Toomey, of Columbia City, have just celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They were married in Fort Wayne fifty years ago by Rev. Father Benoit.

Rev. U. L. Montgomery, of Lagrange, has been called to the pastorate of the North Presbyterian church at Kalamazoo, and will ask his Lagrange congregation to accept his resignation.

Rinard Stutsman, an Elkhart implement dealer, has made a voluntary assignment. Ira H. Church is named as assignee. The liabilities are $2,000 with assets of $3,500. The creditors are scattered.

Frank J. Eker has brought suit at Columbia City against Charles Ness, his father-in-law, alleging slander and demanding damages in the sum of $2,000. Both reside in Washington township, Whitley county.

Lawrence Wyland, the Elkhart young man who was badly burned in an attempt to kindle a fire with kerosene oil, died Tuesday as a result of his injuries. He had been married but little more than a week.

Mrs. Andrew Raber, of Rome City, was thrown from her buggy north of Kendallville Tuesday when the horse she was driving took fright at a threshing outfit. Her left arm was broken and she sustained other injuries.

While William Garrison, of Wabash, was counting some money at his home, his three-year-old daughter playfully snatched a $5 bill and tossed it into the stove where a brisk fire was burning. Hardly enough was saved to have the bill redeemed.

Supplementary to the impeachment charges filed against Mayor Coffee at Decatur, Ed Green has now filed additional charges in which he alleges that the mayor has been addicted to intoxicants and cites it as further ground for his removal from the mayoralty.

While Howard Roy and George Craft, two Wolcottville lads, were shooting at a mark in the rear of the Sanders hardware store, one of the bullets struck into fifty pounds of dynamite stored in a shed near by. A terrific explosion followed in which the premises were wrecked and both lads were badly injured. Craft had one leg broken and Roy sustained a bad scalp wound and other injuries of a serious character. The report of the explosion was heard for miles around.

Twenty-two comrades of the old Fifth Indiana battery were present at the annual reunion held Tuesday at the home of Daniel Myers, of Columbia City. "What the people want is Federal Supervision of Savings Banks." This was the statement made a day or two since in the Convention of The American Bankers' Association at Atlantic City. The speaker was a prominent banker from Connecticut, and he was discussing the plan of the Attorney General to have congress establish Postal Savings Banks. The man from Connecticut was right. This Federal supervision is the strength of the Savings Department of The German American National Bank of Fort Wayne. In this department 4 per cent interest is paid on money left four months and around it are thrown all the safe guards of the National Banking System.

The way the football casualty reports are beginning to come in indicates that the rules committee has not hurt the game so much as was feared.

With Hon. William Taft ensconced in the royal palace at Tokio and Hon. Elihu Root planted in Chapultepec Castle at Mexico, the campaign in foreign lands has been propitiously opened.

Up to the hour of going to press it had not been reported that any roll of bills had been burned in stoves or furnaces in this section, but a glance at the market quotations on necessities of life will indicate the reason.

The leaders of the Welsh tinplate industry have formed a combination which, it is said, will result in the total exclusion of American and German steel bars, which during the last two years have been dumped in South Wales in enormous quantities.

The aggregate of liabilities represented by the business failures of the month of September, 1907, is greater than for any previous month since December in the panic year, 1903. This is a sobering fact, but it is declared by commercial agency experts to be due to temporary tightness of money rather than to unsoundness of business conditions. The general tide of business is still active.

Richard Mansfield, who passed away a few weeks ago, was one among a very few American actors who have died leaving considerable fortunes. The money saving side of him was joined with a capacity for wise investment quite as remarkable as his acting. He left an estate of about $900,000, of which only about $10,000 was in personality. He also carried life insurance amounting to $280,000. With the great majority of our actors who achieve professional prominence and earn great amounts of money during the hey-day of their success, the money goes as easily as it comes. It is probable, however, that the women of the stage are much more thrifty in saving and investing their earnings than are the men. The fact illustrates a difference which obtains, as a rule, between the sexes. Women are by nature more economical than men. If they were not, fewer men would succeed in saving anything.

Today there are fewer saloons in the thirteen southern states than in Greater New York, and only a few more than in the city of Chicago. In New York there are 30,000 places where liquor is sold, in Chicago 28,000, and in the entire south only 29,000. In New York state the estimated population in 1905 was 8,160,000, and the government issued in the state that year 34,080 "special tax stamps" to persons desiring to engage in the manufacture and sale of liquor. The thirteen southern states, with 23,500,000 people, secured in 1906 less than 30,000 stamps.

When the two-cent rate bill was pending before the Ohio legislature the railroads said that the enactment of such a law meant confiscation of their property; that they would be unable to operate many of the roads in the state at that rate, and that no road could make any money carrying passengers for two cents a mile. Despite the protests of the railroads the law was passed and has since been enforced. The state railroad commission has just rendered a report, showing the amount of money collected and earned by the roads under the two-cent law, and the railroads feel better. They have earned more money than ever before. Not only did they take in a million dollars in excess of the amount they took in under the three-cent rate, but they earned more, in nearly every instance, per train mile, than formerly. The law that meant confiscation in reality meant increased profits.

Advocates of the ship subsidy bill are already at work in Washington. There will be a desperate effort made at the coming session to get legislation of some sort through. This is a measure that has by no means popular support throughout the country. All of the seaboard cities realize that it would be to their advantage if it materially helped to build up the mercantile marine, but the inland communities may be regarded as indifferent, with the element against it that shies at the prospect of heavier public expenditures of such an indefinite extent as entrance to the subsidy field would entail. It is quite possible that if there is subsidy legislation it will take a very mild form and will be first urged to secure additional steamship facilities for South America. This is unquestionably needed from a commercial standpoint, though whether even a heavy subsidy would secure it is a matter for serious consideration.

VOTERS OF INDIANA.

Sexennial Report Is Completed by State Auditor.

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—John E. Reed, in charge of the auditing department in the office of the auditor of state, has completed the sexennial enumeration of the voters of Indiana. His report shows a total of 745,245 voters in the state. The last preceding enumeration of this kind showed that there were 694,316 voters, of whom 15,272 were colored. The report just compiled shows 17,965 colored voters. In 1901, or at the time of the last enumeration, there were 53,207 white voters in Marion county and 5,065 colored, making a total of 58,272. According to the report just completed Marion county and 6,488 negro voters, Marion county and 6,488 negro votres, making a total of 72,986. Some of the counties are reported as follows: Marion—White, 66,498; colored, 6,488. Grant—White, 16,268; colored, 538. Allen—White, 23,793; colored, 123. Vigo—White, 24,294; colored, 983.

CITY BREVITIES.

Jean Hosey, the little daughter of Mayor and Mrs. W. J. Hosey, who underwent an operation at St. Joseph's hospital for appendicitis recently, is much improved and was able to leave the hospital today and return to her home.

Yesterday was the seventy-third birthday anniversary of John Madden, of the court house custodian's force. He was at work as usual and in spite of his age is one of the most active and diligent men in the county building. Mr. Madden has always been a lover of sports and recently went hunting and returned with seventeen squirrels, the result of his prowess. Although he has but one eye and is quite aged, he is an expert shot and a tireless hunter.

THREE NEW ORDINANCES MUST BE PASSED BY COUNCIL

Invalidated Appropriation Measures by Raising the Salaries.

The city council will be compelled to pass three new ordinances carrying the appropriations for the health, board of safety and city hall expenses next year because it raised the salaries of the sanitary policemen, clerks and drivers at police headquarters and the janitor at the city building.

This fact was communicated to the members last night in a letter from the mayor accompanied by an opinion from City Attorney Guy Colerick. He said the fact that the action of the council had invalidated the parts of the appropriations measure to which the mayor called attention would not affect it as a whole and that it would only be necessary to embody in a new measure the items where increases have been made, secure the approval of the mayor before its passage and then let it go through, as there is no disposition on the part of Mr. Hosey to quibble over the matter and his only object is to have the matter in such shape that the city controller can pay out money in these departments.

Meat Ordinance Held Up.

Only seven members of the council would sign the committee of the whole report on the meat inspection ordinance, as some influences had evidently been at work since the meeting and the members had been advised that certain changes ought to be made. Mr. Johnson, who is the father of the ordinance, was sore and he spoke out in meeting about it, but the matter was not taken up.

It is proposed to make the revenues from the licenses under the ordinance pay the salary of the inspector provided for in the milk ordinance and no appointment can be made until this question is settled. Just what the members will eventually do is a question, as they did not express themselves last night.

Routine Business Passed Upon.

The mayor notified the council of his approval of the tax levy ordinance and one to prevent the construction of canopies and arches across sidewalks.

Under a suspension of rules $60 was appropriated to buy a new typewriter for the board of public works. The old one will be accepted in part payment.

The Creighton avenue sidewalk measure was held in abeyance until resolutions are put through by the board of public works for two or three squares of the thoroughfare.

Captain Harrison introduced a resolution asking the mayor to see that the chief of police has his men stop the reckless driving of automobiles.

The contract with Joseph P. Martin & Co. for work at No. 3 engine house was approved.

Captain Harrison announced that he will introduce a vehicle license ordinance at the next meeting. If it passes it will bring in a revenue of about $6,000.

The termites, or great white ants, which are highly esteemed as food in central Africa, live in great colonies and build enormous hills. As soon as the rainy season begins, when the termites are full grown and about to leave their nests, they are regarded most choice as edibles, and the man ant eater then goes forth with his ax and chops his way into their dwelling place in order to kill them.

DEATHS, BIRTHS, MARRIAGES.

Quarterly Report Is Made by County Health Officer.

Dr. E. M. Van Buskirk, county health officer, has completed the report on the marriages and births in Allen county for the quarter ending September 30. The record is complete as the new law compels the different physicians to promptly file with the health officer, all births.

The largest number of births occurred in August, 237 children having been born, 131 in September and 129 in July. Of these 268 were males and 231 females. One colored male and three colored females were reported. An interesting report as to the ages of the parents of the children born in the quarter, the number of males and females born, their nationality, etc., is also on record.

The number of couples married in the county during the quarter was 189, of which 174 males and 176 females were American born while there were 14 males and 13 females of foreign birth. Two males and 32 females were under the age of twenty years; 141 males and 125 females between the ages of twenty and thirty, and 30 males and 24 females between thirty and forty, 5 males and 3 females between forty and fifty, 8 males and 4 females between fifty and sixty, and 2 males and 1 female between sixty and seventy.

The number of contagious diseases which was far below that of the corresponding quarter last year were as follows: 17 cases of diphtheria, 6 cases of measles, 13 cases of smallpox, 44 cases of typhoid fever and 2 cases of tuberculosis.

What The Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

J. D. Nutman's private bank will be located in the Burgess block.

The uniformed encampment degree will soon be instituted among the Odd Fellows' lodges of this city.

Newton Wyeth, deputy criminal prosecutor, was at police court this morning, learning the ropes.

Charles A. Whitmore, mayor of Fort Wayne in the days long gone by, is now a resident of Plymouth.

Rev. Mr. McFarland has subscribed for a bicycle journal and will soon buy one of these break-neck machines.

On Saturday the greenbackers withdrew their county ticket, save the candidate for the legislature, Mr. Fisher.

The Maddox brothers are enlivening the various county fairs by a dog race. They have seven dogs which follow the scent of a coonskin dragged over the track by a horse.

Henry G. Olds exhibited three wagons of his make at the St. Louis fair, Finis Cartwright having charge of the exhibit. The wagons received complimentary mention from the judges.

The seventh session of the Medical college of Fort Wayne will open this evening at the college building, corner of Broadway and Washington street. The public is cordially invited to be present.

The Sentinel has made mention of the injunction suit of Hoagland & Tresselt, proprietors of the City Mills, against the New York, Chicago & St. Louis railroad. Saturday night, under the supervision of Civil Engineer Jones, the company proceeded to fill up the canal bed to avoid the process of the courts. The lease of Hoagland & Tresselt calls for 750 cubic feet of water per minute. A box flume 581 feet in length from the tail race was constructed last night by the railroad carpenters, which, it is claimed, delivers 1,250 cubic feet per minute. The flume is 3 1-3 feet by 4¼ feet, inside measurement, and today eighteen inches of water is flowing through the flume.

TAFT NOW IN SHANGHAI IS LIONIZED BY CHINESE

Men Recently Bitter Toward America Give Him Welcome.

Shanghai, Oct. 9.—Secretary of War William H. Taft and the members of his party arrived here yesterday on the steamer Minnesota. The Chinese and the foreign residents of Shanghai united in giving the distinguished visitor the heartiest welcome that ever has been extended to a foreign statesman.

During the afternoon Mr. Taft dedicated the building of the Young Men's Christian association. He made a brief address in which he said that the work of the association among the Chinese was a great step in the interests of civilization, and he was followed by several Chinese officials who spoke in approval of the undertaking.

Given Elaborate Welcome.

At 4 o'clock the secretary was given an elaborate reception by the Chinese residents. This function was out of doors in a native garden. The decorations were most picturesque, embroidered banners and a multitude of Chinese lanterns making the garden look like fairyland. The promoters of the reception were prominent Chinese merchants representing forty-five of the guilds formerly in the boycott movements against American manufacturers.

Speeches of welcome were made in English by local Chinese officials and the representative of the viceroy. The Chinamen emphasized the cordial relations existing today between China and the United States.

In reply Secretary Taft thanked the Chinese for their reception, which he said gratified him as an evidence of their friendship toward the American people and government. At the conclusion of his address the secretary was presented with a handsome silver punch bowl.

Women are Emancipated.

This reception marked an epoch in the matter of the status of women in China, for today Chinese women of aristocratic families were present at the reception and even presided at the tables and served refreshments. This is the first time such a thing has happened in China.

The American residents gave a banquet in Secretary Taft's honor last evening. At this entertainment the foreign consuls and a number of promient foreign business men were present. In reply to an address of welcome Secretary Taft made a speech in which he said the United States had no intention of selling the Philippine Islands.

CROP REPORT ISSUED.

Government's Estimate on Yield of Corn, Wheat and Oats.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The agricultural department today reported the condition of corn Oct. 1 was 78 per cent compared with 80.2 per cent last month and 90.1 Oct. 1, 1906. The average yield of spring wheat is 13.1 bushels per acre as compared with 13.7 bushels for 1906 and 14.7 bushels for 1905. The production of spring corn and wheat combined is about 625,567,000 bushels compared with 735,260,770 bushels as estimated for a year ago.

The average yield of oats is about 23.5 bushels per acre as compared with 31.2 bushels for 1906.

MRS. CHADWICK WORSE.

Famous Woman Prisoner Sinking in Ohio Penitentiary.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, who is serving a ten years sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for wrecking the First National bank at Oberlin, Ohio, is much worse today from heart disease and a weak stomach. Her pulse is very weak and she is partly delirious. Physicians are making all preparations to stay any sinking spells. They decline to say how long she will survive.

WON THE GOLF MATCH.

Fred C. Peters won the finals in the Benson cup tournament at the Golf links. The other contestant was Will Peters and the contest of twenty-seven holes was one of the best matches ever played on the local links. Both men were in fine fettle and as neither one has met defeat at home before this season, interest in the two brothers to see who would win the match. Both played a splendid game but Will Peters was off a little on his usual skill in long drives. The score was three up and two to play.

FIRE DESTROYES COLLEGE.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—Millersburg female college at Millersburg, in Bourbon county, was totally destroyed by fire today. The college was established in 1852.

The total capital invested in British coal mines is fully $500,000,000. The annual wages amount to $300,000,000.

A BITTER FUED BATTLE IN OLD KENTUCKY; TWO KILLED

Three Families in Most Sensational Conflict in Recent Years.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—The worst feud battle that has been fought between rival factions in the mountains in years has just taken place at Hemlock, a village on Puncheon fork of Beaver creek, on the borders of Letcher and Perry counties, according to a story which reached here from Whitesburg, Letcher county, today. Two men were shot and killed outright, while five others were wounded, three of them fatally.

The fight took place at a shooting match arranged by the people of Hemlock. News of the match had gone abroad, and to it came several members of the Martin, Farrell and Hall families. Between these three families there has long been hard feeling, and when moonshine whisky began to work trouble was not long in coming.

Finally some one in the crowd drew a pistol and fired a shot. Others then did the same, and in a minute, the story goes, shooting was general. Andy Farrell and Alex Martin, leaders of their respective factions, were shot and killed outright early in the action, but they continued the fight. David Martin, John Farrell and Mannon Hall all stopped bullets and were fatally wounded. It was believed that Martin would not survive the day. Two other members of the clans were slightly wounded.

After the shooting stopped the men engaged in it who were still able to travel escaped into the mountains, and so far not an arrest has been made, although it is reported the officers have gone to the scene. The fight was the outcome of an old time feud, ashes of which have been smoldering for two or three years without a clash.

It is reported that other members of the three families are arming in anticipation of further trouble and that this will not be long in coming. Hemlock, where the shooting occurred, is in an isolated section of the mountains and it is difficult to get much news of the affair.

CUBA'S NEW CAREER.

Cuba, not excepting Java with its 30,000,000 people, is the most productive island in the world and the disturbances of last fall which necessitated intervention found it beginning easily to outdo the best years it had known before the war that resulted in its independence. Sugar, which last year just touched the old high-water mark of 1,100,000 tons, made in 1894, would have this year gone near to 1,500,000 tons but for the misfortune of the drought. The tobacco crop reached the record-breaking total of $51,000,000, that to the value of $36,000,000 having been exported. This, with sugar and other products, footed up a remarkable total of nearly $100,250,000 to the credit of exports.

Railroad mileage has nearly doubled since the war, there being now in the vicinity of 1,500 miles of broad-guage line on the island, in addition to many hundred miles of private lines serving various of the sugar plantations.

Dr. Koch, the celebrated German scientist, who has been over eighteen months in central Africa studying sleeping sickness, has achieved such widespread fame that the tribesmen regard him as a wizard. In one large village near Lake Victoria, where Dr. Koch, with his assistants, went, the chief erected commodious huts, treated the white visitors as deities and even paid reverence to the instruments.

MRS. VINCENT CONFESSES LIE.

Admits Perjury in Husband's Trial and Saves Him From Prison.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 9.—Repentant of her perjury, Mrs. Bertha Vincent went on the stand in the circuit court yesterday and admitted that she stated a falsehood in testifying that her husband Carl tried to kill her without provocation. The court was considering a motion for a new trial which was immediately granted.

Vincent pleaded guilty to assault and battery and his wife stated that she was after him with a butcher knife when he turned and struck her. The court set aside the former penitentiary sentence and imposed a light fine and a month in jail.

ROUTS NEGRO WITH HATPIN.

Evansville Young Woman Jabs Assailant Who Seized Her.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 9.—When within a few feet of her home last midnight and returning from the opera house, Miss Della Becker was seized by a negro who suddenly stepped from behind a tree.

The woman fought desperately and, pulling her hat pin from her hair, jabbed the negro several times in the face. The assailant finally released his grip and disappeared down the alley.

Abe Brown, a "rounder," claiming Nashville as his home, is under arrest, charged with the assault. Miss Becker has been unable to identify him.

TALK VII.

Hand Tailored Clothing

SO much that I previously have described has been done by machinery that you may wonder what is done by hand.

IN SINCERITY Hand-Tailored Suits many of the buttons, hand turned edges and all those parts that can be improved by hand work, are done by hand. As a matter of fact, there are machines now made, of such delicate adjustment that their work is often preferable to hand work.

MACHINES using silk thread, sew on suspender buttons, etc. Others "overcast" the raw edges of the fabrics, to keep them from ravelling and still others stitch the canvas to the collar, using an arc-shaped stitching motion that goes thru the canvas and half way thru the fabric only, reinforcing the canvas and holding the collar to a permanent shapely set.

IT is a truly marvelous sight, seeing these little mechanical brains, driven by electricity, at a high speed, doing a man's work more accurately than any man could do it and saving thousands of dollars in time.

THE WORK THAT COMES FROM THESE MACHINES AS WELL AS THAT WHICH IS ACTUALLY DONE BY HAND, IS ALL INSPECTED BY KEEN SIGHTED EXPERTS AND WHEN NOT PERFECT MUST BE CORRECTED BY HAND WITH NEEDLE AND SHEARS.

(Next Wednesday I will go further into the "Making of a Suit" and explain what is really meant by "Hand Tailored Clothing.")

TO LINK EUROPE AND PACIFIC COAST BY WIRELESS

Wizard Marconi Will Go to Ireland to Make Experiments.

North Sydney, N. S., Oct. 9.—With the arrangements for a wireless service between Europe and America so far progressed that the trans-Atlantic service may be taken for an assured fact, William Marconi, the Italian inventor, will within a fortnight leave for the station at Clifden, Ireland, the European terminal, where he intends to conduct further experiments looking to the transmission of aerial messages direct from Europe to the Pacific coast.

ROBBERS BEATEN OFF.

Made Unsuccessful Attempt to Loot Treasure Train.

Riga, Russia, Oct. 9.—A band of armed men made an unsuccessful attempt on Monday evening to get away with a large sum of money in transit over the Dorpath-Walz railroad. The band boarded the train here. Between stations they opened fire on the car ahead of them in which a bank official was with the money. The official returned the fire. A gendarme, two passengers and one robber were killed and the official and several passengers wounded. The robbers escaped without the money.

GUILTY ON ONE COUNT.

Burton, Ohio, Banker Is Convicted on Third Trial.

Chardon, Ohio, Oct. 9.—R. N. Ford was today found guilty on one count in the indictment which charged him with wrecking the bank at Burton, Ohio. The jurors found the banker guilty on the fourth count of the indictment, which charges him with "secreting with intent to embezzle." Ford was once before convicted, but released by the circuit court. The Burton bank failed four years ago for $1,250,000. This was Ford's third trial.

Lusitania Maintaining High Speed in Race Across Ocean.

On Board the Lusitania, Oct. 8.—Via Cape Race, Newfoundland and North Sydney, N. She still has about 1,312 miles more to cover the distance to Sandy Hook light ship. If the Lusitania maintains an average speed of 25 knots from that time on she will reach the light ship at about 1:30 a. m. Friday. This would make the time of passage about four days and twenty hours at an average speed for the entire voyage of 24 kn

THE BEST $3.50 SHOES

Men in every walk of life, in all professions and trades, the gentleman of leisure and the workingman—all wear W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes because they are the best.

$25,000 Reward

To any one who can prove that W. L. Douglas does not make and sell more men's $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are worn by more men in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other $3.50 shoe.

My method of tanning the bottom soles produces more flexible and longer wearing leather than any other tannage.

FIRE VETERANS MEET.

Reunion of Men Who Fought Big Chicago Blaze In 1871.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 9.—Thirty-four men who were members of the Chicago fire department and on duty the night of October 8, 1871, when the town burned up, met at the Fort Dearborn restaurant last. Of the then entire fire department only sixty-four members are still alive.

Two of those present are ex-chiefs, Matt Benner and John Champion, and nine are now members of the department. Fifteen of the survivors are still in active service.

The gathering was given up to a proper amount of eating and drinking, the telling of stories and the listening to a set speech by ex-Alderman J. Harry Hildreth. These officers of the association were elected:

President, Matt Benner; Vice President, Lorenz Walters; treasurer, John P. Barrett; secretary, Chris Schimmels; historian, Michael Ahern.

Vice President Walters and Secretary Schimmels are still connected with the department.

INDIANA HARBOR AND EAST CHICAGO MAY UNITE

Two Cities Take Steps to Amalgamate Under Name of Calumet.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 9.—Indiana Harbor and East Chicago have taken steps to amalgamate. Mass meetings of business men and citizens of both places have been called to arrange for the consolidation.

It is proposed to unite the cities into one city and the name suggested is Calumet. It has been proposed also to amalgamate Whiting and Hammond under the name of Hammond.

OFFICERS IN TEST RIDE.

Hike Under Roosevelt Order Was Strenuous for Some of Them.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—The first test ride by army officers which was ordered by President Roosevelt to determine the horsemanship of those of higher rank than captain started from Fort Myer at 2 p. m. yesterday, and two and a half hours later the party of twenty-nine officers was back at the fort, having traversed fifteen miles of good and bad Virginia roads.

There were no spills from the saddle, the nearest approach to casualties being split riding breeches caused by two officers having taken on more than their share of avoirdupois. On the whole the officers seemed to enjoy the "hike."

It was feared that some officers, soft from desk work, would suffer seriously from the enforced ride, and it was predicted that some of them might be mustered out of the army as a result. This will depend on physical examinations to be made.

BIDS FOR GRAVEL ROADS.

Nothing Will Be Done This Winter in Jay County.

Portland, Ind., Oct. 9.—Bids were received yesterday by the county commissioners for the construction of fifteen stone and gravel roads, under the three-mile law. The commissioners did not award the contracts, holding the same over until today, in order to examine the bonds filed. Practically all of the roads were bid under the estimates of their cost of construction by the county surveyor. Owing to the lateness of the season, it is not likely that anything will be done toward the construction of the roads, or that the bonds to pay for the same will be offered for sale until spring, by which time it is hoped to have an opinion from the higher court on the law under which they are being built.

HORSE DIED FROM FRIGHT.

Shied at Automobile and Then Dropped Down Lifeless.

Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 9.—A horse belonging to Michael Snowberger dropped dead on the public highway north of this city, the result of being frightened by an automobile driven by Cassius Evers. When the horse saw the machine it jumped to one side of the road, trembled for a minute or two and then fell dead. Snowberger immediately served notice on Evers that he would hold him responsible for the death of the horse.

HORSE RAN INTO CAR.

Crash Caused Excitement in Down Town District.

Shortly after 1 o'clock today a horse hitched to a wagon belonging to C. C. Schlatter & Co., became frightened at a house cleaning machine which was in operation on Wayne street, and started to run east on Wayne street. At the corner of Calhoun street it started to turn north, but the way was blocked, so it headed straight for Bruder's big window, when Lakeside and Pontiac car No. 115, the same one that figured in the automobile smash-up on South Calhoun street last night, which was north bound, came along and ran in front of the horse.

The horse being unable to turn or stop, hit the car glancingly, and broke the right shaft. However, no one was injured and no damage done with the exception of the shaft mentioned and the back wheel of a bicycle which in some manner was badly bent.

ROAD IS NOT A PUBLIC HIGHWAY WILL BE HIS DEFENSE

Question in School Case at Bluffton Hangs on Legal Point.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 9.—An alternative writ of mandate was issued in the circuit court by Trustee W. H. Davis, of Harrison township, which shows the line of defense proposed in the school case, filed recently, in which William H. Thompson seeks to have a writ of mandate issued compelling the driver of the school wagon hauling pupils to the Poplar Grove school to call at his home for his two children, William Jr. and Lena. The case is set gor Thursday.

In the reply filed by the trustees it is contended that the half mile of road, which his driver refuses to cover and which Thompson seeks to have him drive over is not a public highway, that it is a narrow lane in which a wagon could not be turned around and that if the driver went over it he would have to make the turn on Thompson's private grounds.

Thompson and his attorneys contend, however, that the road or lane is recognized as a public highway, that it has been thrown open to the public for more than thirty years and that it has been worked by the road supervisors. It appears therefore, that the greatest point of contention will be whether or not the road is a public highway or a private driveway. In a similar suit decided at Indianapolis against the trustee the half mile road over which the child had been compelled to walk was a public highway.

RAISES OFFER TO WIFE

Hartje Now Willing to Pay Million For Divorce Decree.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Augustus Hartje today is credited with having increased to $1,000,000 his cash offer to his wife if she would admit the truth of the charges he filed against her at the outset of their now notorious divorce suit. In an interview yesterday the paper manufacturer admitted having offered to pay Mrs. Hartje $600,000 if she would consent to a divorce quietly. Mrs. Hartje refused this.

Today Hartje said: "I declare and reiterate that if Mrs. Hartje will make a full avowal of the truth of the charges against her in connection with Tom Madine and turn over the children to me, therefore permitting the divorce decree I seek to be granted, I will see that she lives as well as she ever did."

"Another lamentable confession of weakness," said John F. Scott, father of Mrs. Hartje, when he heard of the offer. "If Hartje has his case won, as he now claims, why does he want to hand out $1,000,000? Let him keep his money; he will have use for every cent of it."

Over in Ireland Tom Madine is laughing at the Pittsburg people and spending a whole lot of money.

KENTUCKY WAS FLOATED.

Battleship Aground Is Freed After Fourteen Hours.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 9.—The United States battleship Kentucky, which passed in the Virginia capes late Tuesday from the north on its way to the Norfolk navy yard for repairs prior to the sailing of Admiral Evans' battleship fleet on its long voyage around Cape Horn for the Pacific coast, grounded at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning off Lambert's point while proceeding up the Elizabeth river from Hampton roads on route to the navy yard.

Tugs went immediately to the assistance of the battleship. It was in no immediate danger and was expected to be floated at high tide without material injury to its bottom, but the sea fighter was not pulled off into deep water until 10 o'clock last night.

The point where the Kentucky grounded is difficult to pass even in fine weather and in a high wind, such as probably prevailed in Hampton Roads yesterday morning, it might easily happen in making the right angle turn in the narrow channel the ship would go aground with even the best of management.

MAKE THIS MIXTURE AT YOUR HOME AS DIRECTED

Prepare it at Home by Shaking Ingredients Well in a Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a prominent health journal, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known local druggist, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the entire kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter, which cause sickness and suffering. Those who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

From first day there were left one and one-half cup mashed potato, a few slices of cold ham, three ears of corn and one cup cooked rice. These supply the order for codfish, ham cutlets, filling for stuffed tomatoes and lemon rice for dessert. Recipes follow:

Creamed codfish in potato border has been given.

Ham Cutlets on Toast—Chop fine enough cold ham to fill one cup. Add an equal quantity of bread crumbs, a dash of pepper, a tablespoonful of minced parsley and two well-beaten eggs. Form into little cutlets, egg and crumb them and fry in hot fat. Dish each on piece of toast of similar shape, pour around cream sauce and serve.

Stuffed Tomatoes—Cut corn from three cobs, season with salt and pepper (amount depends on size of ears left over) and about two tablespoons melted butter. If convenient add two tablespoons or more of chopped green pepper. Fill the tomatoes, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in slow oven.

Lemon Rice Pudding—Into one cup of cooked rice stir one pint milk. Beat yolks of two eggs with one-half cup of sugar and add juice and grated rind of a lemon. Combine two mixtures. Bake in moderate oven one-half hour. Cover with a meringue and brown very slowly. Serve cold.

EXPRESS AGENT ENDS LIFE.

Joseph Gantner, of Evansville, Sends Bullet Through Brain.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 9.—Joseph Gantner, aged 32 years, shot himself through the temple last night. He was the depot clerk for the Adams Express company. The cause of the act is shrouded in mystery; his books are straight and accounts square.

Gantner settled up with the uptown office at 6 o'clock and then stepped back into the shipping room. A second later the clerks in front heard a shot and ran back. Gantner had shot himself through the head, the bullet coming out and imbedding itself in the wall.

Gantner leaves a wife and a child 5 years old. Mrs. Gantner is unable to assign any cause for the deed.

CATHOLIC EDUCATOR DIES.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 9.—Rev. Stanislaus Fitte, for twenty-five years professor of Latin and Greek at Notre Dame university, died yesterday. His ailment was cancer of the bowels. He was known throughout the United States and France as an educator and religious worker. He was born in Lorraine, France, 1842. Ordained priest in 1880.

The funeral will be held here Thursday and many priests from out of the city are expected to attend.

LAWYERS ASK SPECIAL JUDGE.

Attorneys of Kosciusko County Petition Governor to Appoint Magistrate.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 9.—Governor Hanly will be asked to name a special judge to hear the case of the state on relation of Peter Catlett against James W. Patterson on bond. No judge was appointed within five days after the opening of the September term of the Kosciusko county court, as is required by law after a demand has been made by attorney for either side. Attorneys John W. Graves and John H. Brubaker yesterday filed by demand with County Clerk Aaron Reser.

Patterson is charged with misappropriating funds of Jackson township.

The Ladies' society of St. John's Reformed church will hold its social gathering tomorrow afternoon at the parlors in the church.

FREE FALL EXHIBIT AT AUBURN PROVES A BIG SUCCESS

Great Show is Given About Court House Square—DeKalb News.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 9.—Auburn presents the appearance of a carnival city today. It is not, however, a carnival of the type given so frequently in other towns and cities that is being held here. It is a festival, an exhibition intended to show, in an agricultural and manufacturing way, the wonderful resources of the county—an exhibit of its products. And as such it is a success, for our farmers and manufacturers and merchants have contributed to make it so. Instead of being held on the fair grounds, as county fairs are held, it is given on the public streets of the city, a free exhibit, with many of the objectionable features of the county fairs eliminated. It is not a new fad with Auburn. A fall festival of this kind was held here last year and that of this year is given on a larger scale and is proving more successful.

The exhibit is made on the court house square, which is admirably adapted for the purpose. Here in Auburn the court house is situated over ground twice as large as that upon which the big court house at Fort Wayne is located, the court house standing in the center of one end of this square. This gives it wide lawns in front and on both sides. It is on these lawns and the four streets passing the square that the exhibits of agricultural and manufactured products are made. Booths are erected all over the grounds and along the streets for this purpose, while around on the lawns are seats for the visitors. The arrangement in every respect is a most splendid one and affords the visitor just as good opportunities of seeing the various displays as he could have on any fair grounds.

The exhibits are many. The farmer is prominent and the display of the products of the farm are numerous. Auburn has great carriage factories, the best in the country, and also a big automobile works. The displays in these lines are fine. The merchants are also in evidence. There are many other exhibits, domestic and fine arts, etc. For all premiums of value are given and hence there is competition in every department. Great interest is felt in the awards to be made. The festival will continue until Saturday. In connection with it is the home-coming, the return to the city of former residents. Tonight, as already stated in The Sentinel, there will be a welcome meeting in the Coliseum for them.

HAS LEFT THE HOSPITAL.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 9.—In the wreck at Bloomdale, on the B. & O. road, several weeks ago, among the injured was G. M. Scott, the trainmaster of the Van Amburg circus. He was brought to the Sacred Heart hospital here. He has so far recovered from his injuries that yesterday he started for El Paso, Texas. Before leaving he signed papers for the institution of a suit for damages against the B. & O. road.

AUBURN PIONEER DEAD.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 9.—James Smith, one of the pioneers of the county, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Miller, south of the city. He was 90 years old and had resided in the county since 1840.

GARRETT PEOPLE MARRIED.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 9.—At the Methodist parsonage in Auburn yesterday afternoon Rev. W. B. Freeland, the pastor, united in marriage Milo Wilson, of Rockford, Ill., and Miss Gertrude Shay, of this city. Mr. Wilson has been employed here for some time past with the Western Construction company, the company which has been paving the city streets.

KNIGHTS OF HOLY GRAIL.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 9.—Rev. P. E. Powell, the pastor of the M. E. church of this city, was at Auburn last evening conferring with the officials of the Methodist church there in reference to instituting in that city for the church a branch of the Knights of Holy Grail, a fraternal order for boys. Rev. Mr. Powell is the founder of the order.

SHOP EMPLOYE INJURED.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 9.—Charles Lindolpher, an employe of the machine department in the B. & O. shops here, had his leg quite badly cut yesterday afternoon while operating a machine. He will be confined to his home for some time.

ENGINEER SARBER'S INJURIES.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 9.—In the wreck on the B. & O. road at Willow Creek, on Monday, it was reported at first that Engineer Edward Sarber, of this city, had been fatally injured. The Sentinel did not give publication to the exaggerated report. The injuries of Engineer Sarber consisted only of a sprained leg, caused by jumping from his locomotive, which was derailed and partially overturned.

GIVEN LIQUOR LICENSES.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 9.—At the meeting of the county commissioners here yesterday saloon licenses were granted to Clyde Oberlin, of Butler, and Osmus Nodine, of Ashley.

FIRE DESTROYS ELEVATOR.

Loss, Supposed to Be Work of Incendiary, Reaches $10,000.

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 9.—A large grain elevator located in East Columbus, belonging to W. H. Shanklin, of Knoxville, Tenn., was burned yesterday, presumably by an incendiary.

The loss will reach $10,000, $8,000 of which is covered by insurance. Between 8,000 and 10,000 bushels of wheat were destroyed.

SLAP AT G. W. STIRS UP MANY PATRIOTS IN PROTEST

They Resent Inference That Washington Was a Tax-Dodger.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Captain S. R. Donahue, of Fairfax, Va., who disclosed from musty volumes the record of George Washington's presentment for tax dodging, has had no peace since the exposure was printed. Every mail has brought to the captain a flood of angry and protesting letters.

"The naked truth seems to have offended the patriots, who look upon the 'Father of His Country' as molded from finer clay than his fellow mortals," said Captain Donahue. "They all seem to take my discovery as a personal offense instead of a new fact of history. It's mighty discouraging to a man who makes an excursion into the realms of historical research for the benefit of posterity to get forty-odd bumps a day from his own generation. I'm going to quit the history business after this.

Shakes Morals of Country.

"One letter was a mournful reproach in a feminine hand that suggested cats and tea and hailed from Massachusetts. 'How could you do it?' she wailed. 'You lower the moral tone of the youth of our country when you shake their faith in the great Washington.'

"I replied that I did it for two reasons—one because it was true and the other because I needed the money.

"It is strange that all the protests have come from the north. George seems to be more adored away up north than right around home.

Hatchet Story All Right.

"It may calm the perturbed spirits of some of these outraged patriots to know that on the desk of Mr. Richardson, the county clerk of Fairfax, is lying a hatchet, aged and rusty, to which is attached a paper bearing this legend:

"'The original hatchet used by George Washington.' This ought to offset the tax dodging, unless the fact that the implement bears the trademark of a hardware firm in Bridgeport, Conn., may make some difference.

Satisfies His Visitors.

"Richardson says he got tired telling the visitors why he did not have the hatchet, so he looked up one in the woodshed and labeled it as above for the delectation of tourists, and he finds it does just as well as the original."

Captain Donahue says he has discovered many other facts bearing upon the private life of the Squire of Mount Vernon, but after this present discouraging experience he is going to keep them locked in his bosom.

HUNT IS PLACED ON TRIAL.

Missouri Man Charged With Pierceton Shooting Arraigned at Warsaw.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 9.—Roy Hunt, of Bloomfield, Mo., charged with shooting Lyman Sears at Pierceton with intent to murder, was placed on trial here yesterday. The evidence submitted is strong against the accused.

The trouble occurred in a saloon August 30, and the affair has helped the temperance people of Washington township in their effort to make Pierceton "dry" by remonstrance.

MAY REFUSES TO STAY AT HOME AND IS FINED $10

Breaks Quarantine Established for Scarlet Fever—City Court.

Ira May was fined $10 and costs and got a grueling in the city court this morning because he declined to observe a quarantine notice put up at his home, 611 High street, on account of scarlet fever. He had been in court before and it was shown he had been leaving home and circulating in the neighborhood in spite of a warning that had been given him.

There was a disposition on the part of Judge Skelton to let him off under a suspension, but it was shown he had spent his time drinking and not working for the support of his family and he finally was sent to jail. Superintendent George I. Cooper, of the Home mission, said he had paid one fine for May and advanced him some money which he paid back faithfully, but too much pressure was brought to bear against the prisoner to justify the court in letting him go.

Bargain Day Fines.

Pat Clancey was let off with $5 and costs. He is a regular customer and under ordinary circumstances would have drawn $25, but it was bargain day and George Jones also profited by it. He is a negro and yesterday, in addition to getting drunk, he shocked the classic population of Chicago street with some highly ornamental language.

Mother Had Him Arrested.

Harry Fernwalt has been drinking so persistently and has been so ugly with it that his mother got afraid of him and filed an affidavit against him. He drew $1 and costs after it had been shown that he had two children that needed the money he had been drinking up.

For Assault and Battery.

George Marquard was up for assault and battery on Mabel Newcomb. He had his wife arrested a day or two ago and the whole matter will be threshed out on Saturday morning.

GETTING READY FOR 1908.

Dr. W. F. Myers, secretary of the Great Fort Wayne fair, went to Bourbon, Ind., today to look over the things at the fair in that city. He is already looking for good things for 1908.

It requires 3,200 conductors to keep New York street car passengers stepping lively.

MEMBERS OF DETROIT TEAM WHO ARE BATTLING FOR WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

FIRST GREAT BATTLE A DRAW AT CLOSE OF THE TWELFTH

Both Leaders Break Under Fire in Chicago-Detroit World's Series

FIGURES ON THE GAME.

Attendance	24,377
Receipts	$29,162.50

Owners' Share	$10,498.50
National commission's	$2,916.75

Chicago, Oct. 9.—At the end of the first battle in the great struggle between the Chicago Nationals and Detroit Americans neither had obtained any decisive advantage and after the Tigers had won the game in the eighth and lost the victory in the first half of the ninth the fight went on for three extra innings and was called on account of darkness with the score 3 to 3.

The Cubs drew first blood. In the fourth Captain Chance waited and "Wild Bill" Donovan passed him. He moved up on Steinfeldt's sacrifice and scored on Kling's clean single. Schmidt was responsible for this score as he threw badly after O'Leary had slipped in behind the leader and caught him off the bag. There was no more scoring unta the eighth.

In this round Overall threw out Donovan. Davy Jones beat another hit to Evers and stole second. Tinker fumbled Schaefer's grounder, putting Jones on third. Schaefer caught the Cubs' infield napping and stole second. Crawford, the slugger, singled to right, scoring Jones and Schaefer. Schulte's throw to the plate went into the crowd, Crawford going to third on the ground rule. Cobb hit to Overall and Crawford was caught between the lines, but escaped back to third on account of Kling's bad throw. Cobb made second on the play. Rossman flied to Slagle, scoring Crawford and putting Cobb on third. Coughlin fanned. Three runs.

Chicago Gets Two Runs.

The Cubs came right back in the ninth. Evers fumbled Schmidt's grounder and couldn't recover the ball in time to throw out the batsman. O'Leary's out, from Evers to Chance, enabled Schmidt to reach second. Donovan flied to Schulte and Tinker retired Jones with a wonderful bare-hand pick-up and perfect throw to Chance. No runs.

Chance, who hadn't been able to get a foul off Donovan, dropped a short single into right. Steinfeldt was hit with the fourth bad ball, advancing Chance to second. Kling tried to bunt and popped up a fly for Rossman. Evers hit a grounder at Coughlin, and the Detroit captain booted the ball, filling the bases. Schulte hit to Rossman, who fielded the ball to Donovan for an out at first, Chance scoring on the play. Tinker, who had struck out every time up, was taken out of the game to let Howard bat for him. Howard missed two strikes and took a swing at the next ball, which was far inside the plate. He missed it by a foot and Schmidt let the third strike get away from him. Steinfeldt coming home with the run which tied the game. The Detroit players claimed that Howard fouled the ball, but O'Day said it was simply a third strike, without the foul. Donovan was furious to think that his game had been tied up on a strike-out. Had Schmidt held that ball the Tigers would have walked off the field victorious, 3 to 2. Pat Moran came up to bat for Overall, then Chance decided to let Overall stay in, but O'Day ruled that Overall was out of the game when Moran came to bat for him. Donovan put two strikes on Moran when Evers tried to win the game by stealing home. He made a great slide for the plate, but was out in a very close play. Two runs.

There was no more scoring. Reulbach went in for Chicago and held Detroit safe all the way and Donovan's supreme confidence stood him well in hand. It is all the more to Donovan's credit to hold the Cubs when so much of the work fell upon him. Four times a stolen base put "Bill" in the hole so deep that a base hit would score a run. Every time he prevented that hit by his immense pitching. Not before this year have the Cubs been up against such pitching as "Wild Bill" showed them. At least, nobody has been able to strike out twelve of them and otherwise mow them down so ruthlessly. The tighter the situation the better Donovan pitched, his smile giving confidence to the men behind him and ruffling the Cubs not a little.

Donovan's most brilliant work and the work that took the greatest amount of nerve came in the ninth. He had only himself to blame for the presence of Chance and Steinfeldt on the bases, as Chance had singled and Steinfeldt been hit with the ball. To pull out of that dilemma with 20,000 people yelling for a ninth-inning finish was the trick, and as far as Donovan was concerned he did his part. He never allowed another hit in the inning. He coaxed Kling to pop up, and Evers' grounder to Coughlin should have resulted in a force-out at third instead of filling the sacks. Schulte's out should have ended the round.

Again in the eleventh it was fine nerve that the Tiger twirler showed when the Cubs filled the bases, with one out, on three fluke hits. The way he went at Zimmerman showed the pitcher's supreme confidence and three balls were enough to strike "Zim" out.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

If Donovan had been supported in the manner Kling supported the cub pitchers, Detroit undoubtedly would have won. The most conspicuous contrast in the two teams was right behind the bat. The Cubs discovered early in the day that Schmidt could not check them on the bases and they stole sacks with freedom. It so happened that none of the seven bases stolen did Chicago any good in the run column, but it kept the cubs active and encouraged.

* * *

The players warmed up and got down to business without much formality. The only formal event was the presentation of a diamond medal to "Ty" Cobb, the Tigers' redoubtable right fielder, for leading the American league in batting. The trophy was given by a firm of jewelers in St. Louis, and was so ornate that Mr. Cobb modestly kept in the background of the group. Herman Schaefer, his teammate, had to hold it up in the sunlight so that the grand stand might gaze upon its glory.

* * *

Of the two cub pitchers, Reulbach, of course, looked the better, as no hits were made off him. Reulbach made the Tigers pull back a little from the plate, whereas they had stood immovable against Overall and confident of their ability to hit him. Overall pulled out of several holes in the early rounds, but Kling divides the credit with him for that.

* * *

Taken all round the Tigers looked stronger with the bat, but Jennings' men didn't show the baseball sense in making use of their hits that the Cubs did. For instance, in the sixth inning, with the Tigers a run to the bad and Crawford and Schaefer on the bases, with nobody out, Cobb came up and tried to hit instead of bunt. The thing to do was to get back that one run and tie up the game before going out to make a killing.

* * *

In spite of the intense interest in the game there was nothing unusual in the antics of the rooters. They contented themselves with the usual megaphones and banners, but made a vast uproar without trying to be picturesque. One man appeared in the grand stand wearing a Teddy bear skin instead of an overcoat. He departed for the distant forests when the Tigers scored their three runs in the eighth.

LOCAL INTEREST KEEPS TELEPHONES BUSY RIGHT ALONG

Sentinel Office Besieged by Base Ball Fans During the Game.

Before the Chicago-Detroit world's championship game was well under way yesterday afternoon the telephones in The Sentinel office commenced to jingle and they kept up an almost continuous ringing until the extra, which was the first on the street, was sent out showing that the great battle had ended in a draw.

It went something like this:

"Hello, Sentinel office?"

"Yep."

"What's the score?"

"One to nothing in favor of Chicago in the fourth."

"Oh, h——. Good bye."

"Sentinel?"

"Yep."

"How is she now?"

"Three to one Detroit in the eighth."

"Good for the Tigers."

"This 650?"

"Yep."

"What's the score?"

"Chicago tied in the ninth."

"Well, I'll be—be swizzled."

Local sympathy seems entirely with the Detroit club, although a Cub rooter now and then broke in. The Sentinel will continue to get out extras and will give such information as it is in possession of during the progress of the games.

GARDNER TO MEET MEMSIC.

Will Fight for Title Gans Presented to His Opponent.

Jimmy Gardner has accepted the offer of Mark Shaughnessy, of Frisco, for a battle Thanksgiving day with George Memsic for the title which was recently presented the latter by Gans. The men will weigh in at 135 pounds at noon before the San Francisco club. The matchmaker falling in his efforts to get Packy McFarland as an opponent for the Bohemian champion appealed to George Gardner and the Lowell boxer hustled up communications with brother Jimmy.

ARNOLD IS ASKED TO TRADE.

Grand Rapids Owner Receives Offer for Exchange of Wheeling Franchise.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 9.—Phillip W. Arnold, owner of the Grand Rapids franchise in the Central league, is authority for the statement that he is in receipt of an offer from B. W. Perkins and W. W. Irwin, of Wheeling, W. Va., wherein the Southern men propose that the Wheeling franchise be traded for that of the Wolverine city.

Both cities are excellent base ball towns and during the last two seasons have drawn attendance of equal proportions. Irwin and Perkins, it is stated, are not popular in the West Virginia city for the reason that the Stogies failed to win the pennant in 1906 or 1907. The team, however, finished in second place. Arnold has not decided as to what he will do.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. Earls, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

A local tailor has made a hit with a large number of customers by inserting a secret pocket in the coats of married men who trade with him. As he broadly advertises the new trick, it is for the purpose of enabling married men to hide their change from their curious wives. Already he is hiring more help.—Boston Record.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at all druggists.

BROWNS BEAT CARDINALS IN SECOND GAME AT ST. LOUIS

Brilliant Pitching Features the Event—White Sox Take One.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—Brilliant pitching featured the second game of the fall series between the Browns and Cardinals, and it took nine innings for the Browns to put the one run over the plate which proved to be the winning one, the Cardinals getting a coat of whitewash as their share of the contest.

Powell did the twirling for the American leaguers, and "Big John" was going in such brilliant fashion that his opponents were never dangerous at any stage. Karger was also in fine form, but he was just a shade below the form shown by Powell, and the fielding back of him also lacked the extra edge put on the defensive work by the Browns.

Not a Cardinal got past first base during the game, and but five got that far; four hits were made off him, and he issued but one pass, that coming when he hit Holly in the fifth inning. No two hits came in the same inning, and the pass came in still another inning from any of the hits. Karger was but little behind Powell in his work, and but one clean single was made off his delivery. Score:

Americans	0	0	1
Nationals	1	5	1

Batteries—Powell and Spencer; Karger and Marshall.

Double plays—Holly to Hostetter to Konetchy. Jones to Niles. Passed ball—Marshall. Stolen base—Pickering. Hit by pitched ball—By Powell, 1. Wild pitch—Karger. Bases on balls—Off Karger, 1. Struck out—By Karger, 6; by Powell, 6. Time of game—1:50. Umpires—Johnstone and Evans.

SOX TAKE FIRST FROM ROGERS PARK.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The fast Rogers Park semi-pro team was beaten by "Jiggs" Donohue and his barnstorming White Sox on the former's grounds by a score of 5 to 2. Nick Altrock pitched for the Sox and held the home team to four hits. Hub Hart's hitting and Tannehill's work at third featured the contest. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
White Sox	5	10	4
Rogers Park	2	4	1

Two-base hits—Donohue, Collins, Hart, Sullivan. Double plays—Altrock to Tannehill to Donohue; Atz to Donohue. Struck out—By Williams, 3; by Altrock, 3. Base on balls—Off Williams, 1. Umpire—Bonner. Time of game—1:15.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

In no other disease is a thorough cleansing of the blood more necessary than in Contagious Blood Poison. The least particle of this insidious virus will multiply in the circulation and so thoroughly contaminate the blood that no part of the body will be exempt from the ravages of this powerful disease. Usually the first symptom is a little sore or ulcer, insignificant in itself, but soon the blood becomes so contaminated that the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, hair and eye-brows come out, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and frequently sores and ulcers break out on the flesh to humiliate the sufferer. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the circulation. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison, and making this fluid pure, fresh and health-sustaining. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S., and continues until every trace of the disease is removed from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. Not one particle of the poison is left for future out-breaks after S. S. S. has purged and purified the blood. Book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

An Imitation Stove Will Give Imitation Heat

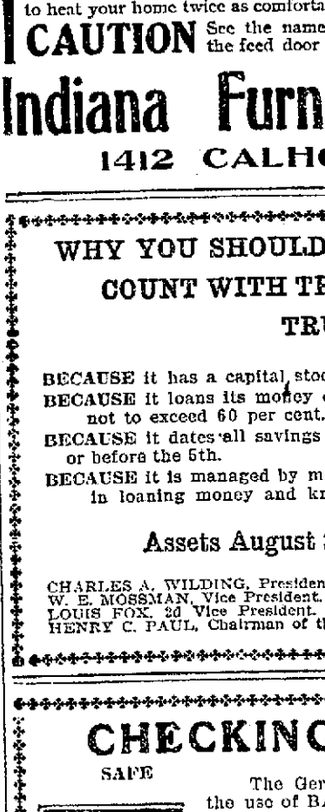
Avoid the cheaply constructed, putty jointed stove as you would counterfeit money, because it is just as worthless—and in many cases even more so. For not only does it radiate heat badly, but it wastes its original cost many times in fuel.

The majority of manufacturers, attracted by the phenomenal success of Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove, have imitated and copied it ever since it was put on the market. But in looks only have they been able to reproduce this wonderful heater.

For the features which make Cole's Hot Blast so economical in fuel, so effective in heating, and so durable in construction, are all patented and protected.

The joints of the ordinary stove are plastered with stove putty in an endeavor to make them air-tight.

When the putty dries up and falls out, cold air is sucked in through the cracks—and the valuable gases from soft or hard coal, which should be burned, go up the chimney, along with most of the heat.



Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove

Burns Soft Coal, Lignite, Hard Coal or Wood

Made without stove putty. It remains air tight during the entire life of the stove, and is sold under the following guarantee, which cannot be made on any other heating stove in the world:

GUARANTEE:

1—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size with soft coal or slack.
2—We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with the same size fire-pot.
3—We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning, with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
4—We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal thirty-six hours without attention.
5—We guarantee a uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal, or lignite.
6—We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
7—We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and dust proof.

The big expense of heating your home is in the fuel and not the first cost of your stove. Don't let yourself be persuaded to buy anything but Cole's Original Hot Blast.

Ask for free booklet on "Scientific Combustion," which will show you how to heat your home twice as comfortably at one-half the present cost.

CAUTION See the name "Cole's Hot Blast from Chicago," on the feed door of each stove. None genuine without it.

SOCIETY

The wedding of Miss Ethel Mossman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mossman, and Mr. George A. Jacobs, of Cleveland, will take place at half past 8 o'clock this evening in Plymouth Congregational church. Rev. Dr. Henry Sell will officiate. The ushers will be A. G. Burry, Burns Douglass of the city, and L. C. Nichols, of Cincinnati. Paul Mossman will be master of ceremonies. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Stella Mossman as honor maid, and by Miss Blanche King, of Detroit, Miss Virginia Thompson, of Altoona, Pa., Miss Helen Jacobs, of Dudley, Mass., and Miss Gladys Williams, of this city. Ernest Jennison, of Pittsburg, will be best man. A reception to friends of the Mossman family will be held at 9 o'clock at the residence on Washington boulevard west.

* * *

Miss Mossman gave a prettily appointed luncheon at the Golf club at one o'clock today in honor of her sister, Miss Ethel Mossman. The guests were the young ladies who are to act as assistants at the Jacobs-Mossman wedding tonight and the bride's mother, Mrs. W. E. Mossman, Mrs. Paul Mossman and Miss Havens, of Boston. Covers were laid for nine. The decoration of the table was a basket of bride roses in the center and single roses for favors. This evening Mr. Jacobs will entertain the men who are to act as ushers, and his best man, at dinner at Anthony Wayne club.

* * *

The only pre-nuptial affair for all members of the bridal party for the Jacobs-Mossman wedding was the dinner for fourteen covers given by Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul Mossman, last evening, at their home on West Wayne street. The decorations were lovely with a profusion of pink roses and smilax adorning the table and dining-room and festoons of smilax on the chandelier. Roses formed the basis of the livingroom decoration and further color was given by pink shades to the lights. The place cards were water color sketches of figures suggesting a wedding.

Mrs. Thomas Riddle and children left today for Philadelphia for a visit with her parents of several weeks.

Mrs. Fred Nichols and baby who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe, have returned to Chicago.

Miss Emma Rodenbeck will entertain tomorrow evening in honor of Miss Sadie Lenocker who is a bride-elect of the month.

The members of the San Antonio club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Robert Shumann, 023 East Wayne street.

Mrs. Bert Quinn gave a novelty shower for Miss Katherine Ryan yesterday afternoon at her home, 1920 West Main street.

Miss Helen Bassett and brother, Guy, have returned from an eastern trip.

Mrs. O. G. Seemeyer has returned from Ohio, where she was visiting friends.

A pleasant time was enjoyed on Tuesday evening by the members of the Varsity Dancing club who met in Mulqueen's hall. It was the club's opening event for the season.

The members of the Laetitia club enjoyed a merry time this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Pape, of St. Mary's avenue. Pink carnations decorated the rooms and the hostess served an elegant supper.

Miss Frances Dreier entertained the Embroidery club this afternoon in honor of Miss Alice Foster. Further details for the plan to give a series of dances the coming season which the members of this club originated were discussed.

The B. T. club was entertained by Mrs. H. A. Swaynie at her home on Spy Run avenue yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. Hartshorn, Mrs. W. Reis and Mrs. Fry won the prizes. Other guests were Mesdames G. Moog and J. Beatty and Miss Stack.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hickman, of 1315 Huestis street, entertained the Friendly Few club on Saturday evening at music and cards. Prize winners were Mrs. E. Wegmiller and Mr. Young for high prizes and Mrs. Rinard and L. Gruber for the consolations. There were present Mr. and Mrs. G. Trease, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gruber, Mr. and Mrs. Rinard, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Wegmiller.

The Houseparty club and invited friends were guests of Miss Grace Nold on South Harrison street last evening. The affair was a "farewell" in honor of Miss Nold, who is to leave soon for Schenectady, N. Y. Progressive dominoes was the game played and the prizes were won by Miss Georgia Miller and Guy Lawrence. The house was beautifully trimmed in green. Miss Irene Nold assisted her sister in entertaining and in serving a fine supper.

Mrs. G. Steinacher, corner of Madison and Division streets, was given a pleasant surprise yesterday by a number of friends who called because Mrs. Steinacher is going to leave shortly for Seattle, Wash. The guests were Mesdames Bailes, A. Rolape, C. Kramer, C. Trier, C. Lucas, Wilcox, Shell, Scheele, W. Hartman, Rempke, Trebra, Platt, Mainer, Orth and Mrs. Uhlig, of New York. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and the hostess was presented with a beautiful gift in remembrance of the day.

Miss Edith Moeller, of West Main street, who is to be married soon to Mr. John Schmidt, was given a very pretty miscellaneous shower by Miss Callie Peters, of Lavina avenue, on Tuesday evening. The affair was one of the prettiest of the number of entertainments given in Miss Moeller's honor, and all the decorations were carried out in red and green. After several games at progressive cards a fine luncheon was served. The prizes were presented to the bride-elect by those who won them, the Misses Carrie Moeller, Mable Denman and Messrs. Henry Peters and Gustave Moeller. Others present were Misses Edith Moeller, Emma Soest, Erma Schulte, Mrs. John H. Peters, Mrs. D. Auer, Messrs. John Schmidt, Gustave Mailand, Frank Zink, Fred Soest, John and Otto Peters.

Wood—Heckman.

A pretty wedding with a graceful and sweet looking bride took place at half past 12 o'clock today at the residence of Mrs. Fred J. Hayden, known as the Hanna homestead, when her niece, Miss Jessie Heckman, became the bride of Mr. Roscoe Vinton Wood. The officiating clergyman was Rev. H. B. Master, of the First Presbyterian church. The bride entered the living room where the ceremony was read, with her father, William C. Heckman, of Chicago, and while her cousin, Miss Eliza Hanna played the bridal music from "Lohengrin." Miss Bessie Scott, of Chicago, was the honor maid and the groom was supported by George A. Bryant, of Baltimore. During the service Miss Hanna played "Dawn" by Nevin and at the close the Mendelssohn wedding march. The bride wore a white Rajah silk, made in three pieces, jacket, walking skirt and waist which had a handsome applique of lace for trimming. The bride held a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Scott was gowned in white net over silk and held pink roses. The decorations of the house were an artistic arrangement of small palms and many ferns, some southern smilax and bowls of pink and white roses, pink predominating. Mrs. Auger did the decorating. The dining room was in pink and green and the wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heckman, of Chicago, and on her mother's side is a direct descendant of one of early Fort Wayne's greatest men, Judge Samuel Hanna. While the bride has not lived in this city since her childhood, she nevertheless has a large number of friends and many relatives who were interested in her wedding. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family only immediate relatives were asked to the wedding. Mr. Wood is a son of Mrs. Virginia A. Wood, of Barnesville, Md. He is a graduate in civil engineering and has a fine position in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Wood left this afternoon for Baltimore where they are to live for a while in 1920 Maryland avenue. About the first of December Mr. and Mrs. Wood will go to Washington where Mr. Wood has accepted a position. In Washington they will go to housekeeping. For traveling Mrs. Wood wore an onion brown broadcloth suit, cutaway coat and ecru lace waist with hat in corresponding colors and blue wings. Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Heckman, Chicago; Miss Anna Heckman, of Reading, Pa.; Mrs. Arthur Stonestreet, of Washington, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Scott, of Chicago, and Mr. Bryant, of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heckman, brother and sister of the bride who are spending the winter in Fort Wayne, were among the city guests.

Kramer—Grimme.

A pretty church wedding of this morning was that of Miss Lillian M. Grimme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard B. Grimme and Mr. Charles A. Kramer, which took place at 9 o'clock in St. Paul's Catholic church. The organist of the church rendered the music with the assistance of Miss May Freiburger, who sang an Ave Maria. Rev. Father Kroll officiated at the nuptial mass. The sanctuary of the church was decorated with palms and ferns and formed a pleasing background for the light gowns of the bride and honor maid, Miss Henrietta Grimme. Mr. Kramer was attended by his brother, Fred Kramer. The ushers were Frank Becker and Edward Gocke. The bride, who is a fine looking young woman, entered the church with her father, preceded by her honor maid. The bridal gown was of white mull trimmed beautifully with valenciennes and baby Irish lace. A white silk hat trimmed with white plumes set off the blonde prettiness of the bride and a white prayerbook with marker of satin ribbon and blossoms of swansonia seemed a fitting finishing touch to her costume. Miss Henrietta Grimme wore a pale blue silk crepe gown made empire fashion and a white hat trimmed with blue plumes. Her flowers were LaFrance Roses. After the church service the bridal party and immediate relatives were driven to the Grimme residence, 1206 Fairfield avenue, where the wedding breakfast was served. The house was decorated with white roses, white carnations and asters and ferns and smilax. The bride's table was done in smilax and white roses. This afternoon the bride and groom left the city for a wedding trip of a few days. They will be at home after the first of November at 835 Washington boulevard west. For traveling Mrs. Kramer wore a handsome tailored suit of brown cloth with long coat, and a hat of brown felt. Both bride and groom are prominent young people of St. Paul's church and have many friends among their acquaintances. Mr. Kramer is employed in a clerical position at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

Grusenmeyer—Ehinger.

Miss Anna Ehinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehinger, of 807 Third street, and Mr. Anthony L. Grusenmeyer, of Logansport, Ind., were married Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the Church of the Precious Blood by Rev. Father C. Hummer. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mamie Ehinger. There were present only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride wore her traveling suit, a brown voile and brown felt hat and carried white chrysanthemums. The maid of honor was gowned in a brown reception gown with trimmings of lace and her bouquet was of chrysanthemums. The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home. The decorations of the dining room were smilax and white chrysanthemums and the bride's chair was trimmed with a wreath of smilax tied with a large bow of white satin ribbon. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Grusenmeyer will go to Logansport, where they will live. Guests at the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Grusenmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grusenmeyer and family, Mrs. Harder, Mrs. Margaret Bauman, Mrs. Mary Michaels, Miss Cecelia Parr, Edward Evanston and Peter Deitchell, all of Logansport.

Ellery's Famous Band Which Comes to Majestic Thursday Afternoon.

It will be good news to lovers of fine music to know that the great Ellery band will appear at the Majestic theater Thursday afternoon, and if the Chicago critics are to be believed, there is a remarkable treat in store for the people of Fort Wayne. Some recent Chicago comments are:

(Chicago Journal, July 11.)

The Ellery band is entirely freed from the vaudeville features of previous years and now appeals to the public solely along legitimate lines, basing its claim for patronage on the comprehensive character of its well-chosen programs and their admirable execution under the leadership of Taddeo di Girolamo, who, instead of endeavoring to force his personality to the front, has been devoting months to the perfecting of his band's technic and the sane and wholesome interpretation of musical master-works.

(Record-Herald, Aug. 18.)

Although the Ellery band has a very extensive repertory, the quality of its work is not allowed to suffer. The men show enthusiasm in their work and frequently build up rousing climaxes. But the feature that will attract attention quickest is the remarkably fine tone of the solo performers who are heard frequently at every concert.

(Inter-Ocean, Aug. 22.)

Channing Ellery, of Ellery's band, is a hard worker and his band is a successful band, but he is not what one would call or would call a money-maker. There are holes between his fingers showing that he is too artistic ever to be rich, but, as he doesn't care for riches, he has that much the better of most men. Ellery is practically the "father" of the Italian band in America and every organization with which he has been connected has been a few grades higher than its nearest competitor in point of merit.

ADDITIONAL Shop and Rail

Engineer M. J. Maroney, chairman of the temporary organization of the Veteran Employes of the Nickel Plate, has issued a bulletin urging all eligible persons to attend a meeting for the purpose of permanent organization in Cleveland on Wednesday, October 23. Eligible members are those who entered the employ of the company prior to October 23, 1882, and are still on the pay rolls. There are about eight eligible men in Fort Wayne.

The Bartenders held a meeting last night and added the names of Orie Eddy and George W. Kelly to the membership roll. The question of the annual ball also came in for a share of attention and it was decided that the affair will be given holiday week.

Machinist H. H. Brooks, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, is off duty entertaining a baby boy, who came to his home last night. Mr. Brooks telephoned the news to the shops this morning, together with the inquiry if four boxes of cigars would square things with the boys. It is the first heir in the Brooks family.

From Pittsburg comes the news that some of the engines on the Fort Wayne road are to be transferred from the 7,000 to the 9,000 class and go to the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus division. It is presumed that this transfer will not take place until some of the engines now building at the locomotive works have been delivered.

Thomas Saffen, the machinist, resumed work at the Bass shops this morning, after an absence of several months. Early in the summer Mr. Saffen was taken sick and when still weak as a result of his illness, he fell on the streets and received wounds in his head which confined him to the house for a number of weeks and at one time threatened to take his life.

Among the products of Fort Wayne's industrial concerns that left the city yesterday for export were two car loads of quarter-sawed lumber from the Perrine-Armstrong mills and thirty organs from the Packard Organ works, consigned to parties in Hamburg, Germany. This was the third shipment of organs to foreign parts made by the Packard people within the past two months.

FAVORS INLAND CANAL.

Vice President Fairbanks Delivers Address in West Virginia.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 9.—Vice President Fairbanks was the principal speaker last night at a banquet given by the West Virginia board of trade, which held its annual meeting yesterday. In referring to the present agitation for deep waterways, he said:

"With the rapid and phenomenal growth of the railroads the attention of the people has been diverted from the improvements of the interior navigable waterways, but the increase of our population and our commerce and the congestion of traffic upon the railroads has awakened a new interest in the subject of deepening and improving our navigable streams. It is a subject, which falls within the jurisdiction of the national government and is one which the government should take up without undue delay and carry forward to early completion."

Defense in Walsh Cases at Chicago Seek Delay.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The attorneys for John R. Walsh, the former president of the Chicago National bank whose indictment for alleged mismanagement of the funds of the bank, today appealed to Judge Anderson in the United States district court for a postponement of the trial, which is set for Oct. 15. The attorneys asked that the trial go over until December or January, declaring that they were so engaged with other business that they cannot spare the time to try the case at present. The government opposed the delay. Judge Anderson took the matter under advisement.

SMART FASHIONS

PERSIAN SCARF WITH DESIGN IN GILT WORK FROM STERN BROTHERS BY MODE OF MRS. LLOYD THOMAS, JOEL FEDER

DAINTY EGYPTIAN SC POPULAARFS ARE R FOR EVENING WEAR

Black and white Egyptian scarfs will be worn this fall and winter. They are the most expensive of the scarf family; that is, the first cost, but then there is practically no end to the wear of them and they never get shabby. Moreover, though sufficiently light for a head covering, they possess a certain warmth very comfortable during cold weather. The length varies from two and one-half to three yards and width is twenty-seven inches.

Giving much the same effect as the Egyptian scarf is a fine sheer crepe chiffon spangled with gold or silver. In this material white, black, pink, blue, green and mauve in light shades are all attractive, the surface lightly scattered with spangles, the ends showing a very deep border of this glittering trimming.

The Persian designs in scarfs are no longer in favor. The Japanese and floral, sometimes the two combined, taking their place. These measure twenty-two inches long and two and a half yards wide. The foundation is a thin Japanese-looking silk, which is entirely covered with the pattern, usually a deep border all around, with a large floral device running through the middle. One of these unusually colored, had a conventional border in browns, very deep in tone at the edges and lightening as it spread, while the floral design running between the borders was in soft shades of blue.

Scarfs in white crepe de chine, embroidered and appliqued with lace motifs, cost about the same price and are perhaps a little more durable than the sheer mousseline de soie.

Both, however, are equally modish, the choice is merely a matter of opinion.

Another novelty, that reminds one of one's grandmother's days, is a heavily fringed crepe de chine scarf shawl, beautifully embroidered. At first glance one immediately thinks of the old-fashioned China silk square shawl, with the knotted fringe and heavily embroidered border.

But the shape is changed, the material is crepe de chine, and the embroideries and laces are as dainty as the old models were heavy.

Without two or three scarfs no girl or woman can get through the winter, and, as these are quite an item, it seems to me that the printed chiffons and the pretty gauzes that come by the yard could be converted into such dainty accessories by fingers not particularly skilled in needle work. There are lovely bordered goods in the sheerest fabrics that are very wide, so that a yard should be sufficient for a scarf. The yard could be cut in two—it would probably measure forty-five inches—and be joined together at the selvedge (with a bit of lace insertion,) the border forming the ends. The scarf would then measure two and a half yards long and eighteen inches wide. The long sides should be finished with a narrow hem and the ends be hem-stitched. If any further embellishment were deemed necessary let it be dainty insets of lace, quite small ones and preferably Valenciennes. Plain chiffon with the ends embroidered with narrow ribbon the same color, adding a little Valenciennes. Appliqne is another suggestion for ambitious but economical scarf builders.

FAITH CURISTS FACE LAW.

Members of Saints' Church Fail to Save Member by Prayer.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 9.—Coroner Kiplinger is inquiring into the death of Harry Rolenbaugh, of near Claypool, who, it is charged, died without medical attention. The deceased was a member of the Saints' church and persons connected with the faith constantly prayed at the young man's bed during his illness.

When the undertaker was summoned to take charge of the remains he declined to proceed, fearing arrest under the new Indiana law, which requires that deaths must be reported to the proper authorities. The matter was then referred to the coroner, who is conducting a searching inquiry.

GRAFT CASES ARE SET.

Arraignment in Pennsylvania Capitol Prosecutions Jan. 27.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—The defendants in the capitol prosecutions will be arraigned in the Dauphin county court for trial January 27 next. This date was agreed upon at a consultation of lawyers for both sides this afternoon and was approved by Judges Kunkel and McCarrell. Counsel for the defense then formally entered pleas thereby waiving all moves for delay. The defendants also renewed their bail for the next term of court.

WATCHED COZY HOME BURN.

Farmer Had to Be Restrained From Rushing Into Flames.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 9.—Restrained from entering the burning building at the peril of his life, by his friends, Daniel [illegible], a retired farmer, was compelled to watch his home and contents on Eight [illegible] consumed by fire yesterday morning, entailing a loss of $5,000. The family had just started to town when neighbors noticed the roof ablaze and called them back. The property was beyond the fire limit and little assistance could be afforded by the department until too late. This is the second loss the family has sustained by fire in eight years. The building was insured for a small amount.

MASHED POTATOES.

Peel potatoes of uniform size, cover with boiling water and cook until tender, salting the water in which they are cooked when the potatoes are about half done. Drain off the water, then with a fork or wire potato masher beat to a fluff in the same saucepan in which they have been cooked. When entirely free from lumps add for every pint of potatoes about one-third of a cup of hot milk, a tablespoonful of butter, and salt and pepper to season. Whip until as light as a feather. Heap in a hot dish, but do not smooth the top; leave it piled lightly. If necessary to keep hot for some time, set the pan containing the potato in a saucepan of hot water, but leave uncovered or cover lightly with a single fold of cheesecloth. Mashed potatoes left over may be utilized in a variety of ways. To make potato pompon take the potato up by spoonfuls and make into balls. Roll in beaten egg, then in bread or cracker crumbs and fry like doughnuts in hot fat. A little minced onion, parsley or nutmeg may be mixed with the potato if desired; or make a potato omelet by adding to a cupful of mashed potatoes one cup of sweet milk, three eggs well beaten, a tablespoonful of flour and a little salt. Mix until smooth, turn into a heated frying pan, with a tablespoonful melted butter, and fry both sides, turning when brown. Mashed potatoes left over may also be added to shredded codfish balls, may be mixed with well beaten egg yolks made into flat cakes and fried in butter, or baked in a buttered tin in the oven, or mixed with a little grated cheese, put into ramekins or a buttered pudding dish with a layer of cheese on top and baked until brown.

OFFICIAL COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne met in the Council Chamber, Tuesday evening, October 8th, A. D., 1907, in Regular Session. President William C. Schwier, in the chair, and J. Frank Mungovan, Clerk, at the desk; present the following members, 14, viz:

Bayer, Boerger, Cook, Enslen, Harrison, Henry, Johnson, Kinder, Langard, Rodenbeck, Schwier, Seidel, Welch, Wyss.

Absent, 1, viz: Councilman Stemen.

The minutes of the last regular session having been delivered to the Council, were, on motion, approved as published.

MAYOR'S COMMUNICATION.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 8th, 1907.
To the Honorable Common Council:

Gentlemen: I have approved the following ordinances passed at your session of September 24th, 1907:

General Ordinance No. 340, An ordinance fixing the tax levy for city purposes for the year 1907.

General Ordinance No. 341, An ordinance regulating the construction of arches and canopies over sidewalks.

Appropriation Ordinance No. 320, An ordinance appropriating money out of the funds available for the use of the city for the payment of expenses and claims against said city for twelve months from the first day of January, 1908, to the 31st day of December, 1908, as amended September 24th, 1907.

In relation to General Appropriation Ordinance, however, I would advise the Council that an error was made by the Council in increasing three items of the same above the amounts submitted in the Controller's revised estimates, viz: Items designated "City Hall Account," in Section 2; "Police Force Pay Roll," in Section 3 and Section 4, being the appropriation to Department of Public Health and Charities.

At the request of the City Controller, the City Attorney was requested to submit an opinion as to what effect, if any, the increase in the above items would have on the validity of the ordinance, and whether the subsequent approval of the ordinance by me would correct the above errors. The opinion of the City Attorney is herewith submitted to you, which explains the situation, and advises what action should be taken by the Council to correct the error in question.

Respectfully,
WM. J. HOSEY,
Mayor.

CONTROLLER'S COMMUNICATION.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 8th, 1907.
To the Common Council:

Gentlemen: The Board of Public Works have asked for an appropriation of sixty dollars ($60.00) to their "Incidental Account" for the purpose of purchasing a new typewriter. As the repairs to the old typewriter, which has been in constant use for a number of years, will cost at least thirty per cent of the amount asked for, I believe the proper thing to do is to purchase the new machine in exchange for the old one, and pay the difference asked for. I therefore recommend that the appropriation be made.

Respectfully,
AUGUST M. SCHMIDT,
Controller.

COMMUNICATION FROM BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 8th, 1907.
Mr. A. M. Schmidt, Controller:

Dear Sir: Please arrange for an appropriation of $60.00 to the "Incidental Account." This amount is needed to pay for a new typewriter, which is very badly needed. The old typewriter, which we have, has been in use for a number of years, and is very much in need of repairs. We can get a first-class machine in exchange for the old one and $60.00 in cash, hence this request.

Respectfully,
EDWARD J. LENNON,
HENRY SCHWARTZ,
JESSE BROSIUS,
Board of Public Works.

COMMUNICATION FROM CITY ATTORNEY.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 8th, 1907.
Mayor William J. Hosey:

I herewith submit my opinion, requested by you, as to the validity of that part of the appropriation ordinance which attempts to increase three of the estimated items of the Controller, without first having procured from you a recommendation that such increase be made.

Section 84 of the Act of 1905, page 271, expressly provides that "Such ordinance (appropriation ordinance) may reduce any estimated item for any executive department from the figures submitted in the report of the City Controller, but shall not increase the same unless recommended by the Mayor." It will be seen that in order to authorize the Council to increase an estimated item of the report of the Controller, that there must first be procured a recommendation by you. This requirement, I believe, is one that is necessary in order to give the Council jurisdiction to make such increase, and in the absence of such jurisdictional step on your part, recommending the increase, no power or authority is given to the Council to make such increase, and therefore its act in that respect is absolutely void. I do not believe that your subsequent approval would be a recommendation within the meaning of the statute. Another portion of the act refers to your approval or disapproval of certain items of the appropriation ordinance, and if your approval of the increased items would be sufficient, then there would be no need of the legislature having placed in Section, 84 the special provision that you first recommend the same, and, therefore, I believe the recommendation by you is a step that must be first taken before an increase in the estimated item of the Controller can be made by the Council. No recommendation having been made by you, I believe, that the portions of the ordinance attempting to increase certain items is void.

I do not believe that the items in question being invalid would render invalid the remaining portions of the ordinance. The Act of 1905 provides in Section 80, clause 9, that you may approve or disapprove the separate items of the appropriation ordinance. This contemplates that parts of the appropriation ordinance may stand and parts may not stand, or in other words, that the items are separate and distinct, and have no connection with each other. And this [illegible] it is a general principle that [illegible] sections of an ordinance [illegible] the other sections are [illegible] or condition would not [illegible] parts which can be enforced. In such case the separable provisions or parts that are valid must stand as the law, while the other parts, the invalid parts, should be held inoperative and of no effect. I, therefore, believe that the remaining portions of the appropriation ordinance are in force and effect the same as if the Council had not attempted to increase the three items referred to.

These three items being inoperative, it will, therefore, be necessary for the Council to pass another appropriation ordinance, appropriating the sums of money covered by the three inoperative items.

The provisions of Section 57 of the Municipal Code of 1905, to the effect that in the absence of a general appropriation ordinance the last preceding appropriations shall be deemed to be continued do not effect this question. The effect of that provision is that in the absence of annual appropriation the entire operation ordinance of the year before shall be considered as in force. But I do not believe that the failure to appropriate certain items covered in the preceding annual appropriation bill would be carried forth to the following year, if a general appropriation is passed and such items are left out of the latter appropriation ordinance. The provisions of Section 57 refer to the failure to pass any appropriation ordinance, and not to the failure to include certain items in an appropriation ordinance. Therefore Section 57 not applying to this state of facts, the additional appropriation ordinance should be passed by the Council.

Respectfully submitted,
GUY COLERICK,
City Attorney.

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 342.

An Ordinance Appropriating and Ratifying a Contract Heretofore on the 10th Day of September, 1907, Entered Into by and Between the City of Fort Wayne and Joseph P. Martin & Co.

Whereas, heretofore, to-wit, on the 10th day of September, 1907, the City of Fort Wayne, by and through its Board of Public Works, entered into a contract with Joseph P. Martin & Co., providing for the performance of certain work on the addition No. 3 engine house, which contract is in the following words:

This agreement, made this 10th day of September, 1907, by and between the City of Fort Wayne, by and through its Board of Public Works, party of the first part, and Joseph P. Martin & Co., party of the second part; witnesseth,

That the party of the second part in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, and in consideration of the payment to it of the sum of money hereinafter referred to by the party of the first part, agrees and hereby binds itself to provide all the materials and perform all the work and labor for the complete plumbing, gas fitting, steam heating and electric wiring, of the addition to Engine House No. 3, of the Fire Department of said City, located on West Washington Boulevard, according to, in compliance with, and in the manner provided in the plans and specifications for the doing of said work, on file in the office of said Board, which plans and specifications are hereby made a part of this contract, and the provisions of the same are hereby made parts of this contract and binding upon the parties hereto the same as if fully copied herein. Said materials to be furnished and said work and labor commenced as soon as the building is ready for its installation, and shall be promptly and rapidly done, and completed not later than January 15th, 1908.

It is further agreed by the party of the second part that it shall execute to the City of Fort Wayne a bond in the sum of Five hundred dollars, with surety to be approved by the Board of Public Works, conditioned for the faithful performance of this contract on its part.

In consideration of the furnishing of said material, and the performance of the said labor, as in this contract provided by the party of the second part, the party of the first part agrees to pay to it the sum of One thousand one hundred and nine dollars ($1,109) at the time of the acceptance of the work by the party of the first part.

Witness our hands and seals, this 10th day of September, 1907.

THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE,
By
E. J. LENNON,
HENRY SCHWARTZ,
JESSE BROSIUS,
Its Board of Public Works.

Attest: H. W. BECKER, Clerk.
JOS. P. MARTIN & CO.,
By
J. EUGENE MARTIN,
Its Secretary and Bookkeeper.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, that the contract heretofore on the 10th day of September, 1907, entered into by and between the City of Fort Wayne, by and through its Board of Public Works, and Joseph P. Martin & Co., relative to the performance of certain work in the addition to Engine House No. 3, as fully set forth in the preamble hereto, be and the same is hereby in all things approved.

Sec. 2. That this ordinance be in full force and effect on and after its passage and approval by the mayor.

J. M. HENRY.

The ordinance was read the third time in full. Upon motion the ordinance was now passed by the following vote:

Ayes, 14, viz: Bayer, Boerger, Cook, Enslen, Harrison, Henry, Johnson, Kinder, Langard, Rodenbeck, Schwier, Seidel, Welch, Wyss.

Nays, none.

The Council then adjourned.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 9.—First prices of stocks were lower all around than last night. The dealings were quite active. Some of the low priced stocks showed wide declines. Denver & Rio Grande and Great Northern Ore Certificates fell 1½. American Car 1, Rock Island 1½, Great Northern preferred 1, Chesapeake & Ohio, American Smelting a point and Northern Pacific large fractions.

The trading became quieter but weak spots developed continuously especially among the industrials and low priced railroads which showed a long list of declines running from 1 to 1½ and establishing new low prices for the year. The Standard-dividend paying railroad stocks were less effected but declined in sympathy.

There was continuous liquidation of numerous low priced stocks on orders said to be from Holland. The usually active stocks gave way in sympathy. Business increased considerably on the decline. United States Reduction yielded 5½ points, the preferred 6¾, American Locomotive 2¾, Northern Pacific, Erie first preferred, Central Railroad of New Jersey, Railway Steel Spring and Pressed Steel Car preferred 2, Tennessee Copper 1⅝ points.

Liquidation was on a more extensive scale after 12 o'clock with the standard stocks sharing in the weakness. Blocks of from one thousand to four thousand shares were sold frequently. Brooklyn Transit lost 3⅝ points, Reading and American Smelting 3, Union Pacific 2⅝, Northern Pacific and Colorado & Southern second preferred 2¾, Wabash preferred, Amalgamated Copper and National Lead 2½, United States Rubber and Interborough Metropolitan preferred 2¼, Kansas & Texas and St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred, Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic preferred, Atchison, Rock Island, Denver & Rio Grande preferred, Kansas City Southern, Louisville & Nashville, and Corn Products preferred 2.

Further inroads were made in prices after which the selling paused but there were no notable rallies. Missouri Pacific sagged 3¼. Sloss-Sheffield Steel 2 and Texas & Pacific 2.

The market closed at the lowest. Slight rallies in covering by room shorts were followed by renewed declines in which American Smelting fell 4⅛, Northern Pacific 3¾, Missouri, Kansas & Texas 3⅜, Union Pacific 3¼, Amalgamated Copper 3⅛, St. Louis & San Francisco second preferred 3¾, Delaware & Hudson 2½, Great Northern preferred, Southern Pacific, Tennessee Copper and American Locomotive and St. Paul 1⅞.

ATTERBURY MAKES AWARDS.

Orders the Distribution of Big Sum Among Road Supervisors.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—W. W. Atterbury, general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad, who, accompanied by about 300 other officials of that company, is making the regular annual track inspection, yesterday announced the awarding of prizes to supervisors on the main line, between Pittsburg and Jersey City, for the best line and surface and for the greatest improvement in line and surface during the year. The five special trains carrying the inspection party are scheduled to arrive at the Union station at 5:10 o'clock this afternoon and the inspection will end here.

The Klondike prize of $1,200, of which $800 goes to the supervisor and $400 to the assistant supervisor, was awarded to H. H. Russell, supervisor, and M. A. John, Jr., assistant supervisor, of section No. 1, Maryland division.

The prize of $800 for the best line and surface on the various divisions was awarded, for the New York division, to C. M. Wiseman, supervisor, and L. J. Fairbanks, assistant supervisor, of section C; for the Philadelphia division, to H. L. Thomas, supervisor, and M. W. Clement, assistant supervisor, section No. 2; for the middle division, to J. B. Hutchinson, supervisor, and I. F. Hanson, assistant supervisor, section No. 5½, and for the Pittsburg division to C. I. Leiper, supervisor, and W. W. Hudley, assistant supervisor, of section No. 11. Each supervisor receives $600 and the assistant supervisors $200 each.

The prize for the greatest improvement of line and surface since last inspection, $1,000, was awarded to W. M. Jackson, supervisor, and W. D. Cornwell, assistant supervisor, of section B, New York division. Of this, $700 goes to the supervisor and $300 to his assistant.

General Manager Atterbury and party left Jersey City yesterday morning and spent last night at Harrisburg. Leaving Harrisburg at 7:47 in the morning, the party is scheduled to reach Altoona at noon, and will arrive here late this afternoon.

STEEL WORK HERE.

Material for the Nickel Plate's New Bridge Arrives.

If weather and other conditions are favorable, the new steel bridge of the Nickel Plate will be in position and trains will be running over it in three weeks. The concrete abutments have been in position for nearly a year and the structural work arrived last night. D. Parkhurst, who will have charge of the construction work for the Pittsburg Construction company, the contractors, also arrived yesterday and tonight sixteen bridge builders will reach the city to begin the erection of the bridge. This bridge will be on the line of the old canal towpath and it is designed especially for passenger trains. It will be a great relief to the yards in busy times, as it will obviate the necessity of clearing the tracks, sometimes at great inconvenience, for passenger trains.

PUZZLE SWITCH COMPLETE.

Labyrinth of Tracks Now Controlled From Central Point.

The "puzzle" switch in the Pennsylvania yards, between Hanna and Lafayette streets, which has been undergoing some radical changes and improvements, is finished and was put in service in its entirety this morning. It is now operated by means of twelve levers in the tower house at Lafayette street, from whence the street crossing safety gates are also operated. This new arrangement requires quite a force at the tower house, but of course all are not at work at the same time. August Emrick and John Eckert have charge alternately of the safety gate levers and Clarence Lehnecke, Frank Fisher, Jerry Kennelly and Ferdinand Weihe have charge of the puzzle switch levers at different times of the day and night.

ELEVEN FIREMEN ADVANCED.

Nickel Plate Officials Take Action on Applicants for Promotion.

As a result of the examination of the twenty-five Nickel Plate firemen up for promotion whose names were published a week ago in The Sentinel eleven were given final examinations yesterday and advanced to engineers. Others are yet to take final examination and their advancement will come later. Those who have passed examination and been advanced are Jacob Reasoner, Gus Long, E. Logan, H. R. Croco, H. H. Wolf, J. G. Williams, F. Johnson, H. L. West, K. L. Granger, H. M. Crawford, F. Gallagher and C. Sloffer. All will run on the Fourth district, between this city and Stony Island.

WILL GIVE ENTERTAINMENTS.

Keklonga Division, Ladies Auxiliary, to Be Hostesses.

Keklonga division, No. 51, Ladies Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors, has decided to give a series of parties the coming fall and winter months and will give the first one on Friday evening, November 1. There will be a dance program for those who enjoy that feature and pedro games for those who do not care to dance. The committee of arrangements is composed of Mrs. George Bonter, Mrs. W. H. Grout and Mrs. Charles Bowman, who are already at work in the interest of the event. These parties will not interfere with the annual ball and pedro party of the auxiliary, which is always given in the spring.

WABASH ELECTS DIRECTORS.

Stockholders Retain Old Personel and Report Increased Earnings.

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 9.—At the annual meeting of stockholders and directors of the Wabash Railroad company held here yesterday, all the old directors were re-elected without contest.

The annual report of President Delano shows that during the year the board appropriated nearly $2,000,000 for new equipment and other improvements and that the net earnings for this year over the previous year was a million dollars. There was a decrease in number of passengers carried due, Mr. Delano believes, to interurban electric lines.

YARDMASTER HAYES AGAIN.

It is Yardmaster Dennis Hayes again at the Wabash yards, the officials having induced Mr. Hayes, through the elimination of some of the rules he objected to, to take charge of that position, and he assumed that duty this morning. Mr. Hayes resigned the position early in the summer and took a conductorship in the yards. He was succeeded by W. E. Rowe, who will probably resume charge of a switching crew in the yards at the end of a vacation he is now enjoying. Mr. Rowe returned from the east last night, but has not yet reported for duty.

TURNED OUT SIX ENGINES.

Today six engines left the Wabash shops and will be turned over to the transportation department for service tomorrow. They were No. 11, Fido No. 2, which will do the shifting work on the shop tracks; No. 860, of the Moberly division; No. 1887, of the Buffalo division, and Nos. 841 and 658, of the Peru division, and No. 12, a passenger engine to run between Toledo and Montpelier.

HURT BY FALL AT SHOPS.

W. E. Rogers, a machinist's helper at the Wabash shops, sustained painful bruises on the side at 10 o'clock this morning by falling into an engine pit. It is believed that no ribs were fractured and no internal injuries resulted.

VISITING SHOP FOREMEN.

M. I. Wharton, boiler shop foreman, and C. H. Miller, machine shop foreman, of the Ronova shops of the Pennsylvania, are the guests of the local shop officials today. The visit is made in the interest of the departments the visitors represent, it being the practice to bring the foremen of the different branches of the Pennsylvania systems together occasionally to exchange notes on matters of mutual interest.

WILL ATTEND CELEBRATION.

The Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of its organization in Chicago on Monday, October 21. Preparations for a grand event are under way and it is believed that it will draw the largest crowd of auxiliary people ever assembled in America. Many Fort Wayne ladies will attend.

OVER 100 STOPPED HERE.

Of the 560 excursionists from Northern Michigan brought into Indiana by the G. R. & I. last night, 120 left the train at this point and 225 were taken to points along the line south of this city, as far south and including Richmond. This excursion is an annual affair with the G. R. & I.

RETURNS TO HIS OLD PLACE.

C. Bowman is back in his old place in the Pennsylvania tank shop, after an absence of two years, during which he was employed in Chicago. He returns to the Pennsylvania with a determination to remain, for he says there is none better as an employer.

CLERK BADLY BURNED.

E. B. Noble, night clerk at the Pennsylvania offices, was seriously burned at his home last evening. The injuries are sufficient to keep him from his work for awhile.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pennsylvania Fireman B. H. Kiber is sick and off duty.

C. E. Walker has resigned as machinist's help at the Wabash shops.

J. W. Yaest, Nickel Plate brakeman, who was sick awhile, returned to his duties yesterday.

C. H. Seibert is a new switchman in the Wabash yards. He will have charge of the shop yard engine.

B. J. Gebert, a son of Engineer Gebert, took a position at the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning.

Conductor J. S. Dick, of the Nickel Plate, who had been at Crooked Lake for three weeks, has reported for duty.

After a few days' illness Blacksmith Frank Girard resumed his work at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Boilermaker John Welsh, who had been sick twelve days, resumed work yesterday at the Nickel Plate round house.

G. W. Boone, who resigned a position at the Wabash shops a day or two ago, has taken a position as fireman on the G. R. & I. road.

M. Spring, employed at the Pennsylvania freight house, sprained his left wrist yesterday and will be off duty a few days.

John C. Kennelly, a son of Constable John Kennelly, has taken a position as messenger at the Pennsylvania shops and round house.

N. L. Bendure has resigned a position at the Pennsylvania machine shop and taken a position with the Fox-Hite Furniture company.

William Hyre, a Nickel Plate brakeman, was taken quite sick at Stony Island yesterday and Brakeman Blackburn was sent there to take his place.

Dennis O'Conners, of the Nickel Plate, is entertaining Mrs. William Bump and son, Henry, of Kalamazoo. Mr. O'Conners resides at 1626 High street.

Mrs. Meyers and Miss Rose Meyers, wife and daughter of Engine Hostler C. Meyers, of the Pennsylvania round house, will go to Chicago in a few days to visit relatives.

Traveling Passenger Agent J. C. Melenbacker, of the Nickel Plate, was in the city yesterday, looking after some tourist business to Oklahoma.

Donald Mungen, formerly of the Bass shops, but now holding a position with the Westinghouse company at East Pittsburg, is in the city spending a vacation, the guest of his parents.

Pennsylvania Shopmen J. F. Lourlmore and O. W. Volland are off duty on account of sickness. Machinist H. R. Scholz, who has been sick, reported for work this morning.

B. F. Sarver, foreman of the boiler department of the Pennsylvania, has returned from Pittsburg and Cleveland, where he spent a week or ten days on special work for the company.

Mrs. Barden and Miss Myra Burton, wife and niece respectively of Pennsylvania Engineer William Barden, left this morning for Kalamazoo, Mich., for a visit with relatives. Miss Burton will remain in that city during the fall and winter months.

Boilermaker Frank Johnson is preparing to move his family from Garrett to Fort Wayne. Mr. Johnson has taken a position at the Wabash shops and his cousin, John Johnson, also a boilermaker recently from the B. & O. shops, has taken a position at the Bowser plant.

William A. Klepper, a machinist who resigned a position at the Electric works some months ago to engage in the Union Laundry business, has disposed of his interests to his partner, Walter Liggett, and has taken a position in the Wabash shops. Mr. Liggett will continue the laundry business alone.

The Rurode DRY GOODS CO

We Do Not Know

That we have ever surpassed this season's collection of desirable goods in all lines. We have certanly put forth our best efforts to secure for our patrons merchandise of style and quality. This is true in every department, and there is a showing of values, exceptional even here, where the best values are the rule.

Every Good New Fashion

Is reflected in our ready-to-wear department. No detail in style or workmanship is too small to receive our careful attention. If you are a judge you will appreciate the many little features that give our garments a distinctive style, a style that is different. Be right in style—the cost is no more.

Just a Word

About our Linen department. You know our reputation for fine linens. The showing now is at its best and we offer some great values. There is always a home need in linens and at present prices now is a good time to buy.

The Little Things

That are necessary for dress completeness are here in lavish profusion. New Laces, Trimmings, Buttons, Ribbons, Notions, Jewelry, Leather Goods, Belts, Combs, etc., right up to the minute in style and right in price.

SOUND TEETH.

It's hard for clean teeth—perfectly clean teeth—to decay. To keep the teeth clean is to preserve them. A brush and water alone are insufficient—something that will destroy the germs that cause decay will be required. This help is in

The Dr. Brook's Toothpowder.

This is an antiseptic preparation that kills the germs. It whitens and cleanses the teeth, hardens the gums and keeps the breath sweet. It is put up in sprinkle top bottles and is delightfully flavored. Because we make it costs only 25c for a large-sized bottle.

THE WEATHER.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Forecast for Indiana: Fair tonight and Thursday; cooler Thursday.

CITY BREVITIES.

Thomas N. Hall left yesterday on a business trip to Cleveland and Pittsburg.

Members of the Sunflower club were guests at a stag party given last evening by H. C. Barber.

A card party and social will be given this evening in the G. A. R. hall by Protected Home Circle No. 279.

Mrs. E. D. Gallagher, of 1004 Wilt street, has returned home after spending some time in Canada and New York.

W. T. Verigan, a well known insurance underwriter, has taken a position with the Lincoln National Life Insurance company.

The Red Line messenger service and employment bureau is moving into their new quarters in the rooms above Alter's cigar store.

Among the Fort Wayne people who are in Chicago to see the world's championship ball games is Ralph McCarty, the well known baseball pitcher.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the bible class room.

Battery B has decided to appoint an entertainment committee for the purpose of arranging social features which they will have in connection with their regular meetings in the future.

An interurban car on the Toledo and Chicago line tied up traffic yesterday afternoon for about twenty minutes by splitting a switch at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets.

Mrs. James Trythall, of 221 East Butler street, assisted by Mrs. Burkshe, Mrs. Boeger and Mrs. Masterson, entertained the Willing Workers' Aid society at her home this afternoon.

Adam A. Reinhart, state vice president of the Catholic Knights of America, will go to Indianapolis to attend a meeting of all the state officers of the organization, which will be held in the Sacred Heart hall next Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Glazier has had the remains of her husband, Charles P. Glazier, removed from the cemetery at Huntertown to the family burial place at Auburn, where a little daughter who died several years ago is buried.

Last night Police Officer Elijah Crist received a telephone message announcing the death of his aunt, Mrs. David Hetrick, at Craigville, Wells county. Officer Crist will probably attend the funeral, which will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Craigville.

The South Side Rescue Mission has leased the old Kennedy saloon building at the corner of Wallace and Lafayette streets and will take possession as soon as the building can be put into shape. A. K. Hite will be appointed superintendent. The saloon building is the place where Samuel Augsburger met his death last year.

DO YOUR MEALS FIT?

Do You Feel Snug and Comfortable Around Your Waist Line After a Hearty Meal?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have patted your rotundity in glee and felt proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Do you feel rosy now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form, and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour risings or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak. If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloaty feeling of aversion to food, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty, and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—one grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong, powerful stomach. They actually digest your food for you. Besides, they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested, it will give you strength, vim, energy and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all around your waist line after every good meal and it will make you feel good all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel happy after eating a good, hearty meal. Take one or two after eating. You'll feel fine—then your meals will fit, no matter what or when you eat.

We want to send you a sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets free of charge, so you can test them yourself and be convinced. After you have tried the sample, you will be so satisfied that you will go to the nearest drug store and get a 50c box.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail, a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Pure food, prompt service, a pretty place and popular prices are the arguments presented in soliciting your patronage.

HURT IN AUTO WRECK.

Editor Geiger's Auto Puts Street Car Off the Track.

In a collision with a Pontiac street car at Calhoun and Williams streets, shortly before 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, an automobile driven by Editor V. A. Geiger, of the Churubusco Truth, was badly smashed and the collision was of such force as to lift the street car from the rails and push it into the gutter. Mrs. W. C. Kelly, 311 West DeWald street, received a painful gash three inches in length over her right eye and Editor Geiger was badly shaken up. Neither were dangerously injured. But a few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Geiger and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were injured in an auto accident, Mr. Geiger then sustaining a fractured arm and other injuries which lost him the sight of one eye. The street car Tuesday evening was loaded with passengers and there was much excitement when the crash came.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

STREET CAR HITS WAGON.

Sherman Cox Pitched From Load of Furniture and Injured.

Sherman Cox sustained three fractured ribs and internal injuries Tuesday evening when the wagon on which he and members of his family were riding was struck by a street car at Broadway and Home avenue and Cox was pitched to the pavement. Others were unhurt. The family was moving to the Fairfield farm south of the city, and at the time the accident occurred the father, mother and two children were riding on a wagon loaded with their household furniture. The latter was scattered about the street and considerably wrecked.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP—USED FOR TEN YEARS WITHOUT A FAILURE.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.
